People sling embarrassing questions

Community probing Romulus candidates

By JIM CARRAVALLAH
Roman Staff Writer

Because residents in Romulus have been "deluged" with election campaign materials, a recent "Meet the Candidates Night" mainly served as a spring board to sling embarrassing questions at the candidates, one veteran election watcher said.

Although the Jaycee-sponsored candidate night was well intended and well attended by candidates and area residents, the project should have been scheduled earlier, according to one candidate.

"I think this is a good idea," said Joan A. Lee, a council candidate. "I think it would be more effective held each week until the election."

"IT WOULD ALLOW the voters to meet their candidates to help them (the voters) make an intelligent decision."

"It's no fault of the Jaycees, who are doing a fine job," she added. "But the people of the city have been deluged with written material, and for the most part they've already made up their minds on who to vote for."

Nineteen of the 20 candidates running for election attended the program Monday night. Incumbent mayor-pro-tem Jimmie C. Raspberry missed the meeting. More than 100 residents also attended.

Most of the candidates talked about teamwork and the need for recreation, commercial-industrial development, better planning, lower taxes and better services.

PERRY C. GRAY, candidate for the council said: "You could elect 10 people who can work individually toward one goal, something called a team."

"Or, you could elect the 10 best candidates, who work individually for their own goals in an effort to reach what is best for the community, through discussion."

"I believe the people who reach their conclusions through discussion are the best for the community."

Beverly McAnally, another candidate for council, said: "I'm a great believer in people, and I have to admit I can't get all things accomplished through my individual efforts."

"BUT, I'VE MADE a life of motivating people. And I hope, if elected, I can make the citizens of Romulus aware that working together we can build a better community."

Here's our pick

Romulus Roman rates candidates

In the remaining days before next week's general election, community-minded citizens must reach a decision of significant importance to the future of Romulus.

As part and parcel of the community, The Romulus Roman also has an obligation in the decision-making. Each man and woman, this newspaper included, must reach a decision on which of the two mayoral candidates should lead Romulus for the next two years.

AFTER WEEKS OF serious study of the two candidates, conferring with citizens from all segments of the community — our preferred rating for mayor goes to Terry L. Troutt.

Troutt's past service as a township supervisor and in the Michigan Senate has merit in our decision; but moreso, it's his willingness to assume the kind of leadership Romulus needs in the immediate years ahead.

We accept Terry Troutt's pledge that his quest to return to local public service emanates from a deep desire to return the favor to a community he loves.

Romulus must move ahead. She must move out of the tarnished image now cloaking the community. We feel Terry Troutt, if given the opportunity, will get Romulus back on the right track.

ROUNDING OUT THE full-time administration team at city hall, we endorse the reelection of Leonard Folmar as city clerk, and the election of treasurer candidate John Lewkowicz.

Folmar is needed at city hall, and with a second term under his belt — he will do much to improve the administrative image at city hall.

Lewkowicz offers a promise to run the treasurer's office by the book, and as a voice in guiding the redevelopment of Romulus.

On the city council level, the voters must select seven individuals who must give nearly full-time duty to a post identified as a part-time elective office.

AS THE LEGISLATIVE unit of city government, they must possess the ability to work together, offer constructive criticism — and never lose cognizance of their pledge to the entire community.

Our seven candidates for council include William M. Oakley, James C. Stewart, Fred Junior Block, Joan A. Lee, Jimmie C. Raspberry, Lng Coleman and Donald J. Treder.

We also urge the adoption of three charter amendments on Tuesday's ballot; namely, to change the election petition procedure, clarify administrative duties in government and define the duties of the mayor pro tem in the event of the incapacitation of the mayor.

Now the final decision rests with the voting citizenry.

Residents go to polls; Light turnout expected

Despite an 11 per cent increase in voter registrations since the Aug. 7 primary election, the Romulus City Clerk expects a relatively light turn-out in the city's general election.

"I don't expect much more than the same turn-out we had in the city primary," the clerk said. "We had about 30 per cent of our 11,253 voters turn out during the August election, and I expect maybe 35 per cent to vote."

Since the primary, Romulus' registrations have ballooned to 12,457, up more than 11 per cent over the August tallies. The clerk believes the increase is due to the city's second mayoral election, which pits incumbent Hyle J. Carmichael against challenger Terry L. Troutt, former township supervisor and state senator.

"WE ONLY HAD the council primary in August," the clerk said. "But now, the city's administration is being chosen and the voters are going to pick seven councilmen, definitely changing three of them. It creates more interest."

Three incumbent councilmen failed to make it through the Aug. 7 primary election.

Despite the record high total of election registrations, the clerk said the final count is inaccurate.

TERRY L. TROUTT

Area voters to evaluate administration in city

By JIM CARRAVALLAH
Roman Staff Writer

The record of Romulus' first city administration will be evaluated by the voters Nov. 6 when incumbent Hyle J. Carmichael's administrative team will be pitted against Terry L. Troutt's promise of better city administration.

Carmichael, along with Romulus City Clerk Leonard Folmar and Romulus City Treasurer Albert Glinki will be challenged by Troutt with his clerk candidate, Gary Bingamen and his treasurer, candidate John Lewkowicz.

In the mayor's race, Carmichael, the banker-turned-mayor 3½ years ago, will be pitted against Troutt, the veteran of eight years as township supervisor and one year in the Michigan State Senate.

CARMICHAEL, 57, a life-long resident of the city, lives at 37526 Walnut St.

Carmichael is pitted against Troutt...

For the 30 years prior to taking the mayor's post in 1970, Carmichael worked first in the Romulus Bank, founded by his father, and then with the Manufacturer's Bank. His wife, recently died. Carmichael has one daughter.

Troutt, 54, lives at 16365 Farnum St., with his wife, Charlotte.

The father of two girls, Troutt was Romulus Township Supervisor from 1955 to 1963, and served in the Michigan State Senate in the 13th District in 1964.

HE IS A FORMER chairman of the Wayne County Board of Supervisors and former chairman of the 16th

District Democratic organization.

Troutt has lived in Romulus since 1941.

Folmar, 52, of 38356 14th St., came into city government from the Romulus Urban Renewal Department.

A graduate of Ferris State College, Folmar has lived in the city all his life. He served in the U.S. Army.

HE AND HIS wife, Celeste, are the parents of one child.

He is a member of the Wayne County Clerks Association.

Bingamen, 27, of 35511 Stephanie Dr., is a graduate of Oakland University.

A veteran of the Vietnamese war, he presently is the manager of sales and the food and beverage department at the Sheraton Metro Inn in Romulus. He is single.

GLINKI, of 36915 Ferndale St., Romulus owned and operated his own business, Kratts Market in Romulus 16 years prior to being elected city treasurer in 1970. A graduate of Belleville High School, Glinki is a 22-year resident of Romulus. He and his wife, Anita, have five children.

Charter changes face area voters

Romulus voters will be faced with three charter amendment proposals designed to streamline the governmental process in the city, though they won't change procedures drastically.

The three amendments are designed to:

- define the responsibilities of the council in the event of the incapacitation of the mayor, and the unwillingness of the mayor pro-tem to serve;
- define administrative departments and commissions;

- reduce the requirements for filing petitions for nomination to a ballot.

The first proposal requires the council to elect the mayor of the city in the event the elected mayor is incapacitated, or otherwise unable to serve, and the mayor-pro-tem is unwilling to take his place.

In the present city charter, the mayor-pro-tem has the right to pick the mayor's successor.

The second provision defines the difference between administrative departments and commissions — stating administrative departments are under the direct supervision of the mayor or his designated administrator, and commissions have no power to direct city employees on the job.

The third provision reduces the number of signatures required for nominating petitions from between 100 and 200 required to between 50 and 100.

Groundbreaking held for nature center

Recreational opportunity will be increased

Recreational opportunities for area citizens will be increased because of a groundbreaking ceremony recently held at the future nature study site of Oakwoods Metropark near Flat Rock.

State, county, township and park officials participated in the event marked by a spadeful of dirt "turned over" to mark initial construction of a new $240,277 nature center building which is expected to be in public use sometime in 1974.

"This marvelous facility is expected to be one of the finest nature centers in southeastern Michigan and a major attraction when the park opens," said William E. Kreger, Wayne County's representative on the seven-member Board of Commissioners of the Huron-

Clinton Metropolitan Authority, which has nine Metroparks serving the citizens of Wayne, Macomb, Oakland, Livingston and Washtenaw counties.

OTHER OFFICIALS present for the groundbreaking were: HCMA Deputy Director James J. Pompo; Mrs. Mary Lou Carey, clerk, Edward Helwig, treasurer, and Harold Ashby, chief of police, all of Huron Township; James Beers, recreation services division, Department of Natural Resources, Lansing; and Jack W. Yops, architect, of Wyandotte; George Giblin, park superintendent at Lower Huron Metropark near Belleville; park naturalists William F. Hopkins and Robert Wittersheim; and Leonard Omichinski, chief engineer, all of the authority.

When completed, the 6,800 square foot nature center building will include separate rooms for exhibits, lectures by park naturalists, observation room, aquarium, indoor turtle pond, lobby and restrooms. Special features include a small auditorium and a combination lunch-classroom to aid school groups using the center.

CENTER GROUND BREAKING—County Officials toss the first shovel of dirt for construction of a $240,277 nature center building overlooking the Huron River in Oakwoods Metropark now under development near Flat Rock. Left to right are William E. Kreger, who represents Wayne County on the Huron Clinton Metropolitan Authority and James J. Pompo, deputy director, both of the authority; Mrs. Mary Lou Carey, clerk, Huron Township; AND James Beers, recreation services division, Department of Natural Resources, Lansing. Oakwoods Metropark expects to open sometime in 1974. This will be the 10th Metropark serving the citizens of Wayne, Macomb, Oakland, Washtenaw and Livingston counties.

The nature study area covers 350 acres bordering the Huron River and backwaters of the Flat Rock impoundment, which has several bays, wooded islands and marshlands inhabited by frogs, muskrats, turtles, fish and ducks. Several flowers are uncommon and hopefully new species of waterfowl will be attracted to the area.

Realizing that the natural features of the area would make this site an outstanding natural interpretive area, more than 10 years ago authority planners included this nature study area as a major facility for "Oakwoods Metropark."

Deputy Director Pompo said a team of authority specialists, including planners, engineers, landscape architects and naturalists, have worked on this project since its inception.

PRELIMINARY research was prepared by Naturalist William F. Hopkins. Robert Wittersheim, park naturalist, now is obtaining background for the trails and labels to identify natural features.

The two other HCMA parks in Wayne County include Lower Huron Metropark (1,200 acres) near Belleville, which opened in the mid-1950's, and Willow Metropark (1,500 acres) near New Boston, which opened in 1970.

Van Buren wins an ally

Van Buren Township residents have won over an ally in their fight against the proposed expansion of Willow Run Airport. The University of Michigan Board of Regents, owners of the airport, have requested that the Michigan State Highway department initiate a master study plan of the airport expansion plan.

Heated campaign in Belleville

Politics, like in Belleville, is running rampant in neighboring Romulus. In the race for mayor, incumbent Mayor Hyle Carmichael is being opposed by former State Sen. Terry Trout. Fourteen council candidates are seeking election to seven seats. They include Fred Junior Block, Richard Butz, Lnnng Coleman, Perry Gray, Joan Lee, Robert Martin, Beverly McAnally, William Oakley, Jimmie Raspberry, Dolores Ristow, James Stewart, Donald Treder, Jack Trumble, and Gilbert White. Seeking the city clerk's office are Leonard Folmar and Gary Bingamen; while in the treasurer's race, Albert Glinski and John Lewkowicz are pitted against each other.

Area residents sling questions

William M. Oakley an incumbent councilman, said: "We've covered just about all the topics and have made all the promises now. But, it's too bad the people only are concerned about their city at election time."

"I'd like to see a few more of these faces out at the council meetings during the rest of the year."

Gilbert E. White, Jr., another council candidate said: "I won't waste time talking about the political issues."

"I THINK THE city needs men who will think on the council."

"I believe it is Jefferson who said, 'If you have two men who think alike, you don't need one of them, and I agree.'"

When the preliminary statements by each of the candidates were finished, the meeting was opened to written questions from the floor, most of which appeared to be attempts to embarrass candidates.

"Who's responsibility is it to secure vehicle titles?" wrote one concerned citizen.

"MINE," said the incumbent city clerk Leonard Folmar. "I imagine the questioner is concerned about the items covered in the audit of the city's budget in 1970 and 1971. When we took over from the township days, I thought I had all the titles to all the vehicles owned by the city on record."

"The audit more than adequately pointed out that I didn't have them in the records."

"That oversight has been corrected."

"What is being done about records maintenance?" asked another resident.

"WE'VE CORRECTED the problems included in the audit," said the incumbent treasurer, Albert Glinski. "I should explain, the records problem cited in the audit resulted when we were converting the records keeping portion of the city operation to computers, and some old records were kept in the former manner."

"The problem's been corrected."

Another resident asked council candidate Gary Bingamen—"Why weren't you registered prior to 1973?"

Bingamen responded: "Even though I lived in this community for seven years, I didn't believe in the people who were running it—until this year, when I found the people I'm running with (the Trout team). I believe they'll do the city some good now."

Bingamen registered to vote in Romulus only days prior to filling his petitions to place his name on the ballot for city clerk.

Teacher lobby favors arbitration

Fears state would control local schools

By WES THORP, Lansing Bureau

LANSING — Local school administrators should sit-in on their own government classes, according to Sen. James D. Gray, D-Warren. If school officials don't pick-up some political savvy soon, Gray warned that they run the risk of losing control of their schools.

Gray, a member of the Senate Education Committee, is also part of a handful of legislators searching for a way to avoid the school teacher strikes which have plagued the state this fall.

THE JOINT HOUSE-SENATE task force is also trying to find a way to release state school aid to school districts which were closed by strikes on September 26.

State aid to local schools is based on a student count which is supposed to be taken on the fourth Friday in September.

Amid all the discussions, Gray said he is

'The state MEA doesn't represent the teachers that I know.'--Sen. James D. Gray haunted by the idea that the Michigan Education Association is pushing for state control of local schools.

The MEA which is the collective bargaining agent for thousands of teachers in Michigan has indicated that it is leaning towards compulsory arbitration as a method for settling teacher-school board disputes.

"I'M FEARFUL that this would just another push towards eventual state control of local schools," Gray said.

"Unless there's a reversal of the present trend," he said, "I think there will be a continued erosion of local control of schools."

To counter this trend, Gray said that school officials have to learn how to use their political clout.

"At the present time, I think that they are unsophisticated about politics," Gray added. "They are basically afraid to get involved."

THIS SHYNESS about getting involved, he continued, "is why they (the MEA) are successful in the erosion of local control."

In 1972, Gray said that he introduced a bill which would have put teachers under the control of state Department of Education.

The bill was drafted to give teachers a chance to "touch and feel" what state control is like, he said. "I didn't favor such a proposal myself. It was just for discussion and demonstration purposes."

According to the provisions of the proposed law, the state would hire all teachers for public schools. The teacher would be subject to all state civil service rules.

A SCHOOL DISTRICT would apply to the state for the teachers that they need. Such an application would have to be made one year before the beginning of the school year, according to Gray's proposal which he never wanted implemented.

A teacher would then be assigned to a school district for five years, after which he would be reassigned to another school district.

Gray said the bill was to wake teachers up.

He added that he believes that the rank-and-file MEA member doesn't want state control of their local schools. "The state MEA doesn't represent the teachers that I know," he said.

WHAT GRAY REALLY wants is contained in a resolution which he introduced last spring calling for a constitutional amendment guaranteeing local control of public schools.

Unless things change, Gray said, "those of us who preach for local autonomy of public schools will continue to be a disappearing breed."

Cahalan is right

'Reduced' sentences soft peddle crime

When Wayne County Prosecutor William Cahalan talks of taking sentencing rights away from judges...it makes sense.

At a recent management seminar sponsored by Michigan State University, the prosecutor said the only way to determine crime is to enforce the penalty - be it a jury verdict or on the basis of a guilty admission.

And we agree with the Prosecutor Cahalan, not as an expression of district of the judiciary in the handing down of sentences - but moreso, to establish a sound-proof system of determining crime.

Under our present penal code system, in most cases, the actual sentencing edict is left to the whim and caprice of the judge...and often times the sentencing laps over into the discriminatory aisleway.

We also agree with the prosecutor that our present prison sentence code system is too harsh, and for that reason most judges will grant probation to a convicted felon...or leave it up to the prison parole board.

If the penalty for armed robbery is five years; it should stick. And no judge or parole board should have the right to change that sentence because of certain social pressures.

We must stop coddling of criminals with reduced sentences...and begin thinking of the rights and protection of law-abiding citizens.

For example, the Wall Street Journal reports that in California's Yosemite Park the crime rate has jumped 253 percent during the last decade. In 1972 alone, this particular park was the scene of three murders, three rapes, seven robberies, 18 assaults, 142 burglaries and 624 thefts.

Disorderly conduct became such a problem that a special section was set aside solely for the use of rowdy young people so that they would not bother other visitors. That was a major error, for the young people took over this section and drove out the park rangers.

There is much to support the view that it is time to adopt a hard line on crime, regardless of where it is committed. Beefing up police forces and law enforcement classes will help curb the actions of those who do not respect the rights or property of others. But greater assurance of apprehension will not deter the wrongdoer unless he is also reasonably certain that a fair hearing, court action and some "penalty" will follow his unlawful acts. Special areas should not be set aside for the disorderly in our national parks any more than an habitual criminal should be allowed to roam the streets. These people are a threat to the lives, rights and property of all those around them.

Progress in the effort to curb criminal action has been made. More must be achieved if the time is to come again when it will be possible to walk the streets of our great cities without fear of being assaulted, and if the places of beauty in our national parks are to be sanctuaries of nature's tranquility for all to enjoy.

We agree with Prosecutor Cahalan that it's time the sentencing game be taken away from the judiciary.

Sees sluggish growth

Economist rules against recession

By TOM OCHILTREE
Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON — A famed economist from the University of Michigan concedes that 1973 has been a rough year for American business but insists that "an almost obsessive pessimism" regarding the future has been overdone.

Prof. Paul W. McCracken told the congressional joint economic committee that "The prognosis for the economy at the moment is better than sentiment about it."

Peering ahead he said it was possible but highly unlikely that the nation would experience a recession in 1974. He added:

"WHAT IS MORE likely is a period of sluggish growth, but the U.S. economy in 1974 will employ more people and generate more real purchasing power and output than in 1973."

McCracken, former chairman of the Council of Economic Advisers, pointed out that "the most serious problem we face is the possibility that 1974 will be a year of sharply accelerated cost inflation."

There also is a danger, he said, "that a frenzied scramble for skilled workers will trip off another wage explosion - beginning with construction workers and spreading across the labor force."

On the positive side he maintained a golden opportunity exists for American businesses to establish a strong position in foreign markets.

REP. MARTHA W. GRIFFITHS, D-Mich., recalled that Congress has pending a trade bill which contains tariff concessions to the Soviet Union. She asked:

"If Congress passed that bill what will be the chief export of the United States five years from now?"

"I should think it would be agricultural products," McCracken said.

In 1927 George Herman Ruth socked 60 home runs, a baseball record certain to be broken next year by the booming bat of Hank Aaron. That same year back in 1927, a U.S. air mail pilot named Charles Lindbergh made the first solo non-stop U.S.-Paris flight in 33 hours, 29 minutes and 30 seconds in a mono-

Milliken sets trap for Legislature

Building a 'platform' for the big race

By BOB BERG
Lansing Bureau Chief

LANSING — Gov. William G. Milliken is going to hold the Legislature's feet to the fire this fall in an attempt to squeeze as much action as possible before election year arrives.

The governor greeted returning legislators with a speech on the first day of the fall session laying out a series of problems and outlining proposed solutions to those problems. He will fill out the list in the coming weeks with a series of special messages proposing action in each area.

The result could be a flood of legislation in areas as diverse as judicial reform, campaign reform and land use. Or it could be two months of inaction and wrangling over what should be done, with the problems still needed a solution in January.

THE CYNICS SEE MILLIKEN building a case against the legislature for his own re-election campaign in 1974. But the governor has shown an ability in the last couple of years to work with the legislature and to propose only those things that are possible and - in some cases - already partially worked out.

For instance, his education package last year was much the same as one Senate Education Chairman Gilbert Bursley had been working on for months. That's not to say Milliken stole the idea, since he had worked with Bursley on it. But it does mean he had checked the ground before he walked on it.

Upcoming consumer related proposals relating to generic drug substitutions and automobile repair control, for example, are similar to bills already introduced and being worked on. That means the governor is adding his weight to existing proposals rather than will be a priority item...

spurred by Agnew

resignation and Watergate.

proposing something entirely new. That makes it easier to achieve results.

IN AREAS SUCH AS JUDICIAL reform and campaign reform, the governor is proposing changes to what everyone recognizes is a problem. Again, it is easier to get people moving on a solution if they all agree there is a problem.

No one has been happy with the way Michigan picks its Supreme Court judges since the 1963 Constitution was adopted. The selection process for appeals court judges is only slightly better. There is something basically unappealing about taking prospective judges and putting them in a position where they must campaign for votes and-or money for a job in which they should be totally without partisanship or bias.

Milliken will be proposing that Michigan adopt a form of what is commonly known as the Missouri System in which judges are appointed by the governor from a list submitted by an impartial committee. They then are put on the ballot periodically for a "yes" or "no" vote by the electorate with no opposition. If they are voted out, a replacement is appointed.

CAMPAIGN FINANCING is another area in which reform is a recognized need, particularly in the wake of Vice President Spiro Agnew's resignation and the continuing revelations of Watergate.

Everyone agrees some changes need to be made in the bureaucracy of state government, and Milliken plans to take all agencies dealing with the health and welfare of the citizenry and combine them in a Department of Human Services.

Land use is a subject which recent has become much in the public spotlight as people start to worry about running out of farm lands on which to grow food and wilderness areas. Most agree action is needed there, too.

This is not to suggest that Milliken will get action on all the areas he brought up in his welcome back speech. But he has picked his targets with care and with some hard work by both the legislature and governor's office a lot could be done this fall.

And if nothing, or very little is accomplished, the governor would have a 1973 version of a "do-nothing" legislature on his hands. And he might just feel obligated to talk about that during the 1974 campaign.

A 'terrifying' school bus ride

Samantha will always remember that first day in school

To the Editor: The first day of kindergarten for my five-year-old turned out to be the most frightening day of her life.

She was picked up by the bus in front of the house in the afternoon and off she went with a big smile. She came home scared to death. She was put on the wrong bus at Mt. Pleasant school even after telling them she had to go on the other bus with her friend that lived next door.

I was told by the school that her bus would drop her off in front of the house at 3:45 in the afternoon. At 3:40 a bus was coming and as I waited for it to stop I saw Samantha stand up and wave. The bus just kept on going. I ran to the house to call the school and was assured she would be back on the return trip. Two panicky phone calls and 30 minutes later she still wasn't home. After she was 45 minutes past due I received a phone call from a woman who asked me if I was Mrs. Stephenson and would I please talk to my daughter and calm her down. She said she was found on a street corner crying, 4 miles from home and could I come and get her.

Samantha told me the bus driver made her get off the bus even though she told her three times she couldn't because she didn't live around there. I guess it didn't make any difference to the bus driver that she had her name and address pinned to the front of her clothes.

The thing that upsets me the most is when I confronted the principal, it was passed off with no more than "well nobody's perfect." Being unsatisfied with that I called the Assistant Superintendent in charge of Personnel to complain and was put off with "Well we can't hang him on a cross and crucify him!"

It may not be important to them because it wasn't their child, but how many times has this type of incident occurred in the past and no one complained. It may mean a child's life the next time. I think the citizens of Romulus should be aware of this situation.

Mrs. David Stephenson
Romulus

Editor's note: Administration is investigating the incident and if deemed necessary, appropriate disciplinary action will be taken, according to Thomas Janack, assistant superintendent for Maintenance and Operation.

Township delays action on joint water program

Formal action on a proposed joint water agreement between Sumpter and Van Buren townships has been deferred by the Van Buren Township Board of Trustees.

A proposed form of the joint agreement between the two communities was presented at a recent meeting of the township board by Van Buren Township Attorney John Axe.

The board tabled official action on the agreement due to a lack of information.

The agreement, as initially proposed provides terms on the sale of water and installations of necessary water mains, laterals, connections and other appurtenances to provide for the distribution of water between the two townships.

In other matters, the township board accepted a building permit fee from the Van Buren Public School District.

The building permit fee was for one of three homes that will be constructed by students in the school district's vocational education program.

The board of education recently purchased two lots located at Beverly and Sheldon roads for the school district's building trades program.

The homes when individually completed will be sold through a professional real estate agency and sale money re-invested into the construction program.

The township board also approved a motion made by Trustee Stephen Kuchta and supported by Trustee Dominick W. Blend to refund the permit fee if the school district did not recoup its original investment in the property.

The board also tabled the creation of an airport commission to study possible expansion of the Willow Run Airport until more details are available.

The Wayne County Road

Commission, owners and operators of the Detroit Metropolitan Airport in Romulus, wants to expand Willow Run.

Funeral services are held

More than 150 motorcyclists from throughout the state participated in the "last ride" for one of their members who was killed in a motorcycle-truck accident.

The motorcyclists attended funeral services for Burton Lafoy Hughes, 29, of 29 Henry St. Belleville on Oct. 25 at Roberts Brothers Funeral Home.

Hughes was a "road captain" and member of the Bikers United of Sumpter.

Hughes was fatally injured Oct. 22 when struck by a truck on Sumpter Road near Willis Road. Hughes was riding his motorcycle north on Sumpter Road when according to police, a truck being driven south allegedly got on the wrong side of the road. Hughes was dead on arrival at Wayne County General Hospital.

Police still are investigating the accident.

The motorcyclists joined Hughes on his last ride to Hillside Cemetery in Belleville where burial services were held.

He is survived by his wife, Linda, two children, Brian and Deanne; three brothers, Frank, John and James; and two sisters, Mrs. Debbie Trupiano and Mrs. Bunny Howell, all of Belleville.

Director calls tour 'success'

A recent bicycle tour held under the sponsorship of Van Buren Township Recreation Department was successful, according to the recreation director.

More than 20 enrollees in the adult physical fitness program of the department participated in the bicycle tour, said Ben Robertson, the director.

The bicyclists met last Saturday morning at the township hall, 46425 Tyler Rd. and rode their bikes to Lower Huron Metropolitan Park, located near Belleville.

A bike tour of the park was made followed by a picnic.

Training and materials for the tutoring program will be provided by the YWCA and the volunteers would work with students on a one-to-one basis on Tuesday and Thursdays from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m.

A meeting of those interested is to be held at the Hayti School, 30155 Beverly Rd., Romulus, at 3:30 p.m. tomorrow. For additional information on the tutoring program, call Beth Brooks at 721-6725.

Michigan has a larger variety of commercial tree species than any other state. Its forest product industries contribute almost one billion dollars annually to the Michigan economy.

COME TO THE FAIR—The United Church Women of the First United Methodist Church of Belleville extend an invitation to their annual bazaar, 'Country Fair,' tomorrow, Nov. 1, from 11 a.m. to 8 p.m. General chairman Mrs. Joseph Moon (right) and Morning Circle chairman Mrs. William Chizmar show the variety of dried flower arrangements, pine cone wreaths and wall hangings which will be among the many features at the Fair. Little Becki Chizmar, 3, is a reminder that there will also be attractions for the younger set.

At Methodist Church

'Country Fair' to feature lunch, spaghetti dinner

If reliving the thrill and excitement of an old-fashioned Country Fair makes you feel like a kid again, you won't want to miss the fun, fare and trimmings offered by the United Methodist Women at their annual bazaar tomorrow, November 1.

The Fellowship Hall will contain booths featuring a variety of wares including handicrafts of many kinds, toys, gifts, attic treasures and mouth-watering goodies.

The group's always-scrumptious baked goods counter will be set up in the narthex of the First United Methodist Church, 417 Charles Street. Homemade breads and rolls, cakes, pies, cookies, and that ever-lovin' fudge will be among the items to choose from when Gladys Mast and her committee amass the variety of foods.

ALONG WITH the home-baked items, the narthex will be filled with the aroma of hot pretzels, roasted peanuts and cider.

Another highlight of 'booth row' will be handicrafts of all kinds created by the Morning Circle which is chaired by Peggy Chizmar. Dried flower arrangements, pine cone wreaths, wall hangings, and sock-dolls will be among the items on sale.

The Evening Circle with Marian Irwin as chairman has gathered together everything and anything for its 'attic treasures trove.' The group will also have a library corner where books of all kinds may be purchased. Fancy work will be another area in which to browse and select items for your Christmas list.

The 'Country Fair' will open at 11 a.m. and continue until 8 p.m. Luncheon will be served from opening until 1 p.m. offering a choice of Maurice salad or sloppy joes, both with beverages and gingerbread.

At 5 p.m. a spaghetti dinner will be served by the Adult Fellowship under the leadership of president Dick Muse offering the perfect climax to a day's festivities.

All profits will be divided between Belleville's crisis center, 'The Number', and a mission family in the field. The public, as always, is most welcome.

THEN...AND NOW—Twenty-five years ago, in 1948, the esquire side of the Dolph clan got together for a family portrait (above) to commemorate the four-generations of the family which turned out to be all male. In the above photo is three-month old Gerald Dolph held by his great-grandfather, Elmer. To the left is his grandfather, Orville Dolph, and to the right his father, Albert. A quarter century later, in the fall of 1973, another picture

Gingham Gift Shop now open

A new business was added to the City of Belleville October 19 when the Gingham Gift Shop opened at 144 Third Street, across from the A&P. A mother-daughter duo, Helena Bunyea and Carolyn Weidmayer, has teamed up to offer a variety of handicrafts for all ages and occasion.

The goods, taken on a consignment basis, are all locally made and include the currently-popular ecology boxes and paper tote pictures.

Other wall hangings offer seed-owl plaques and dried flower pictures. In the ceramics line one may choose from lamps, ashtrays, figurines and pitcher-bowl sets.

Corn husk dolls, wooden toys, decorated milk cans, and jewelry are among the items on display. And, too, there are hand-knit and crocheted hats, handbags, ponchos and baby apparel as well as gingham bonnets and aprons.

A side-line of the shop will be dressmaking and alterations.

Hours Monday thru Thursday are 9:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. Friday's opening is extended until 8 p.m. Customers are reminded to use the rear entrance of the building.

Baldwin-Bleeker vows

Belleville couple wed in candlelight service

In a beautiful and impressive ceremony October 12, Kathleen Ruth Bleeker and David Paul Baldwin were united in holy matrimony. The First United Methodist Church of Belleville was reserved for the seven thirty nuptial rite conducted by the Rev. Joy E. Arthur and former pastor, Rev. Charles Dibley.

MR. AND MRS. ANDREW DWORNIK

The soft glow from candles in the windows and on the altar formed the setting for the double ring rite. Acolytes for the occasion, dressed in gowns to match the bridal attendants, were Carol Ratz, the bride's cousin from Monroe, and Wendy Turney, a friend and neighbor of the bride.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Ruth Bleeker of 15975 Elwell Road, Belleville, and the late Richard Bleeker. Mr. and Mrs. Manley J. Baldwin of 12044 Ryznar Drive, are parents of the bridegroom. A center arrangement of white mums and gladiolas graced the altar as Eddie Castillo played the guitar and sang 'The Wedding Song'. Other music during the ceremony was by the chorale group with which the bridegroom had toured last year. Youth for Christ's 'Children of the Son', who sang 'True Love'.

ESCORTE UP the aisle by her brother, Kenneth Ross Bleeker, Kathy appeared in a beau de soie creation styled in toe-touching length with a lace apron effect at the front, a high rolled collar, long, puffed sleeves and a chapel sweep which drifted from the high-rise waistline. The lace-trimmed gown was made by the bride's honor attendant, Vicki Jo Ray of Belleville.

Kathy's floor-length illusion veil, trimmed in French-embroidered lace and held by a little lace cap, was made by her aunt, Mrs. John Levick of Rochester. Completing her bridal finery was a cascade bouquet of white roses, mums, stephanotis and ivy. Identically dressed, the bridal coterie wore floor-length dresses of royal purple moire patterned along the same lines as the bridal gown. The maid of honor was distinguished by her headpiece which was comprised of fresh stephanotis and purple statice. Ruthann Smith of Belleville; Elizabeth Ratz of Monroe, a cousin; and Mrs. Michael (Ellen) Baldwin of Ypsilanti, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, wore soft-brimmed picture hats in a deeper purple. The foursome carried colonial bouquets of white roses, purple carnations and baby's breath accented with white streamers.

Dworniks observe 25th anniversary

Later a reception was given by their children, Mr. and Mrs. David Rochon, Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Lemenux, Nancy, Gary and Darlene. Some 100 relatives and friends arrived to commemorate the silver event.

standing Junior High School' team and received a trophy for cheering excellence. They also received a fourth place ribbon in the evening competitive program.

Varsity team members who will appear tonight are Janice French, Carol Smith, Sheila Thurman, Val Ford, Lisa Chen, Lisa Pellicchia, and Denise Ostrowski.

Making up the junior varsity squad will be Beth Purcell, Laurie Hill, Kim LaMothe, Laura LeBlanc, Diane Poole, Janet Bly, and Gina Mynyard.

Now. An official program that can cut heating costs up to 17% and conserve Natural Gas.

If you're like most people, holding down heating bills is an idea that hits you right where you live. And, chances are, you'd like to help save Natural Gas, too. Especially during this time of energy shortages. Now there's an official program that supports both of these objectives. It was developed at the direction of the Michigan Public Service Commission, which is seeking ways to conserve Natural Gas and hold down utility bills by the wise use of energy.

The heart of the program is simply this: Installing ceiling insulation in your home. It's quick. Economical. Easy. A recent White House study found that "the most significant opportunity" for homeowners to conserve energy was through "improved insulation of houses." "Such improved insulation," the government said, "would benefit the individual homeowner by reducing winter fuel bills, summer air conditioning bills, size and capital cost of heating and cooling equipment, and air pollution?"

The Michigan Public Service Commission agrees with this conclusion. It has supported a study prepared by Michigan Consolidated Gas Company which found that Michigan homeowners can achieve fuel savings of as much as 17% by adding six inches of insulation to their attics. Naturally, results for your home may vary due to architectural differences and your heating habits.

To help you realize fuel savings in your home, we've designed an easy home insulation program. Here's how it works. First, you can install the ceiling insulation yourself. It's a simple do-it-yourself project—and the most economical way to put in ceiling insulation and hold down your heating bills. Many customers can accomplish the task for less than $100. Michigan Consolidated Gas Company has even prepared a helpful booklet that shows you just how to do the job. Secondly, you can call a contractor of your choice and arrange to have the work done. Or call Michigan Consolidated Gas Company. We'll have one of our participating insulation subcontractors install it for you.

Our insulation program is easy on your budget, too. Many houses with up to 1,000 square feet in the ceiling area can be insulated for less than $200. And, there's a payment plan to suit most every customer. You can pay cash. Or, you can pay just 20% down at the time the contract is signed—then simply have the remaining cost included in your gas bill. Pay it off on your next three gas bills with no interest or carrying charges. Finally, you can pay for the job over an extended period at an interest rate of 1% monthly on the unpaid balance. ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE OF 12%.

Whichever you choose, you'll be taking an important step toward holding down your heating bills. And cutting down on the use of Natural Gas. Why not plan on doing it now. Contact us today for additional details. And if you're a do-it-yourselfer, ask for our free booklet.

Harrison teachers team teach to help student learn reading

Two third grade teachers at Harrison Elementary School in Romulus are trying to make sure that "Johnny can read" by the time he leaves their classes.

The two, Mrs. Rada Andrews and Mrs. Gladys Baker, found themselves in the not-too-unique position of having from 25 to 35 students in their classrooms at the start of school, and adding to the problem was the fact that the youngsters usually have six or more reading levels.

The problem of trying to give each student attention needed at his reading level, plus finding time to teach math, English and other subjects, seemed impossible until the two teachers decided to coordinate their efforts with a team-teaching plan.

THE CHILDREN were given a reading test at the beginning of school to determine his or her reading level, then came a "read aloud" session with the teacher for each child to make doubly sure of the child's reading level.

The two teachers combined students in both rooms in their respective reading levels, giving each teacher three groups to work with instead of the six that she would work with without team-teaching.

Both rooms have the same Meyer gets membership in Star Club

Court dismisses $100,000 lawsuit

The $100,000 libel suit filed against Gary Bingamen, the candidate for Romulus City Clerk in the Nov. 6 general election, has been dismissed. Wayne County Circuit Court Judge John M. Wise dismissed the suit, filed by Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael, stating that an article written by Bingamen in the "Romulus News" was "in no way libelous."

In the article, Bingamen said Carmichael "lives it up on city funds" according to an audit of Romulus 1970-71 books.

BINGAMEN had written that the audit showed several violations of the city charter, including liquor and food expenses for Carmichael.

Judge Wise said the expenditures of public funds for liquor was not only a violation of the city charter, but also a violation of state law.

However, the Wayne County Prosecutor's office has refused to charge the current administration with wrongdoing, stating it still is investigating the audit report.

Also, there has been no court action on a suit filed by Troutt and his slate members to make the present administration accountable for the so-called "lost funds."

"IN LIGHT of all the publicity given this item," Bingamen said, "It looks as though the suit meant nothing."

"It's my opinion that the court not only dismissed the suit, but also indicated that everything included in the article was the truth."

According to Judge Wise, necessary, that's done too, according to Arthur McPharlin, Harrison principal.

THE TEAM-TEACHING program begins with classroom assignments given out by each teacher. When the time comes for the reading groups to change rooms, the students take their unfinished work with them to work on when not active in the reading group.

When assigned work is completed, the third graders are free to work on other projects that are of interest to them, or to hear "talking books" or to read.

The team teaching, according to McPharlin, gives a flexibility in teaching between the two teachers and makes it interesting for the children. At the same time, the teacher can give more time to each reading group rather than trying to spread her attention to six reading groups each day.

Carmichael's attorney, William Moshier, has the right of appeal.

"I don't have any reaction to the court's ruling," Carmichael said Monday. "But, Bill Moshier has indicated he will appeal the decision."

Carmichael said he still thought Bingamen's charges were libelous, but declined to discuss the circuit court ruling.

"People turn to the Yellow Pages when they want specific answers."

"That's what we think and that's why we list many of our special sign services in our ad," continues Mr. Loren Whitcomb, Whitcomb Sign Co., 7636 West Road, Washington. "With few exceptions, people don't have a definite idea of what they want. Quite often potential customers call and ask about items like displays, plaques, silk screen, pin striping, electrical signs, etc. We take this as a sign they're probably looking at our Yellow Pages ad. By explaining our services I feel the Yellow Pages has a definite place in our total advertising program."

"Our Yellow Pages ad outproduces all of our other advertising 3 to 1," says Mrs. Rene Clark, Country Estate Mobile Homes, Inc., 58220 W. Eight Mile Rd., Northville. "It's our best advertising investment. Since we've had our ad, our business has increased by 50%! I think some business people overlook the fact that the Yellow Pages maintains a hard-hitting and effective ad campaign of its own. But we only have to look at our results to know that the campaign is really paying off in the form of more business for us."

Mr. Hershel Stuart, Federal Hardware and Supply, 29080 Southfield Rd., Southfield recommends Yellow Pages advertising highly. "My program includes display ads in the North Woodward and East Area Directories. These ads pull in literally hundreds of calls for fireplace fixtures, resulting in sales ranging from $20 to $200. I also receive a great deal of response from our ad at the 'Hardware' heading. This ad produces both calls and walk-in business."

A lot of sales help, that's what the Yellow Pages gives Mr. Chester Podgorny, Venoy Realty Co., 32508 Michigan Ave., Wayne.

"During the past 16 years we have found Yellow Pages advertising a very efficient way to attract potential real estate customers.

The calls we get from the Yellow Pages are regarded as very important because these buyers are in the market now. We began with a half-page display

ad. After we became established we switched to a smaller ad.

However, we noticed a definite decrease in leads from the Yellow Pages and decided to return to the half-page ad we carry today."

For fall, winter months

Romulus Rec Program underway

After a slow start due to the teacher strike in the schools, the Romulus Recreation Department school-year recreation program is underway.

Romulus residents, young and old alike, can take part in a variety of recreational and educational activities during the fall and winter months at virtually no cost through this year's program.

Young boys have the opportunities to take part in organized recreational activities during weeknights in Romulus elementary schools and open basketball programs scheduled at the Romulus Junior High School.

YOUNG GIRLS have the opportunity to learn homemaking skills and can participate in organized recreational activities at their local schools.

All youngsters also have the opportunity to learn karate through the recreation department.

Older citizens, both male and female, have the chance to stay trim and fit — ladies through exercise programs and men through the adult basketball league.

Greenfield Village has new party line

Greenfield Village and Henry Ford Museum have revived the old fashioned telephone party line. Now prospective visitors can get an earful about what is going on at the village and museum.

"The Village Party Line" is a new public information service offering a rundown of activities, hours, admission rates, eating facilities and other pertinent information.

General information inquiries are still being handled by the line on a 24-hour-a-day, seven-day-a-week basis. "The Village Party Line" can be reached by dialing 271-1976.

—For your— Entertainment

Ladies have the chance to improve their homemaking skills, too.

YOUTH RECREATION for boys and girls already has started. But any youngster wishing to participate can by obtaining permission from his or her parents.

Boys can take part in organized recreation at the Harrison Elementary School Mondays; the Cory Gordonier, and Merriman schools Tuesdays; the Beverly and Hayti schools Wednesdays; and Romulus school Thursdays. The day for the Mt. Pleasant school program has not been set.

Girls can take part in a similar recreation activity at Beverly, Hayti, Mt. Pleasant and Cory schools on Mondays; Merriman school Tuesdays; Romulus school Wednesdays; and Gordonier and Harrison schools Thursdays.

Both groups, aged nine through 13, have the opportunity to take part in karate lessons Monday at the Merriman school, Tuesday at the Cory school and Wednesday at the Mt. Pleasant school. Hours for the program, which starts Nov. 12, will be from 6:30 to 8 p.m.

GIRLS STARTING Nov. 16, can take part in ballet lessons from 4 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. Fridays at the Romulus City Hall. Ages for the program are from six to 13.

Janet Lynn stars on ice

"Ice Follies" of 1974 starring Janet Lynn, and Snoopy, the flop-eared beagle of "Peanuts" fame currently is presenting its version of "A Salute to America" at Olympia Stadium in Detroit.

The show opened last week and runs through Sunday.

Janet Lynn has become world famous for her pixielike appearance, not to mention an abundance of skating ability. The Rockford, Ill. native is one of the finest "free style" skaters to come along in many years and this fact is borne out by her unprecedented five straight U.S. Ladies Championships and World and Olympic medals.

Comedy is as much a part of "Ice Follies" as star skating, and this year's show is no exception. Snoopy is, of course, returning as well as Mr. Frick, the perennial comic of the show. New to Ice Follies, but no stranger to major ice revues, is Hans Leiter. Add to this the Scarecrows and Funsters and laughs aplenty can be expected.

Halloween party set in Romulus

Romulus' "junior citizens" have a chance to take part in the "Halloween Fun and Games" at 6 o'clock tonight at the Romulus City Hall.

Children under 12, accompanied by adults, are welcome to celebrate their "ghoul night" with games, refreshments, candy, films and organized fun.

Information on the party can be obtained by calling the Romulus Recreation Department at 941-3337.

Curtain calls

The greatest number of curtain calls in ballet is believed to have been after a performance of "Swan Lake" in Vienna in 1964 - 89 curtain calls. The dancers were Dame Margot Fonteyn and Rudolf Nureyev.

Starting Nov. 17, boys aged six through 12 can take part in a structured basketball clinic from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the Romulus Junior High School.

Classes will be held Saturdays throughout the fall season.

Boys also can take part in the Little League Basketball Program starting Jan. 12. Youngsters in the fourth through eighth grades can take part in the program, with games scheduled from 9 a.m. to noon at the Romulus Senior High School on Saturdays.

ALSO, YOUNG men can take part in the Inkster Hockey Association program by contacting the Romulus Recreation Department.

Young girls have a chance to learn needlecraft after school weekdays. Only girls in the third through sixth grades are eligible.

Information on the program can be obtained by calling the recreation department.

Youngsters aged 11 through 16 also are eligible to take part in the Snowmobile Safety Clinic through the Romulus Continuing Education program. Information on the clinic can be obtained by calling 941-1600.

YOUNG-AT-HEART men can take part in the fall basketball league, by signing up today at the Romulus Recreation Department, 36516 Bibbins St.

Games are scheduled from 6 p.m. to 10 p.m. Mondays and Thursdays at the Romulus Junior High School.

Ladies with their eye on the scales can try to keep off the creeping pounds by taking part in the weekly "Slim and Trim" program starting Nov. 7 in the Romulus Community Room.

Exercise starts at 2:30 p.m. and runs to 3:30 p.m. Wednesdays at the community room.

ALL MATURE adults are welcome to take part in the Romulus ceramics program, Thursday from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. in the Romulus City Hall Community Room. Classes start Nov. 8.

Ladies and men who are interested in taking up knitting can learn starting Nov. 15 at the Romulus City Hall. Classes run from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. Thursdays.

And the family can take part in organized open skating programs at Kennedy Park, and at the Middlebelt-Ecorse, Eureka-Middlebelt and Wayne Course fire stations in the city — weather permitting.

All information on the fall recreation programs can be obtained by calling the Romulus Recreation Department at 941-3337.

Film on Poland to be shown as part of YMCA film series

On Saturday evening the Wayne-Westland Family YMCA will present its second program of the "Travel and Adventure Series" in the Wayne Memorial High School.

Poland's greatest natural resource is its people. Flanked on both sides by aggressive neighbors, Poland has been struggling for her existence since her birth in 966.

If it were not for the fiercely independent spirit of her people, Poland would have been absorbed by her neighbors long ago.

In "Exploring Poland," the people are as interesting and varied as the landscape, according to the YMCA.

"We follow the beautiful Vistula River, from its source in the magnificent Carpathian Mountains of southern Poland, to its mouth at the northern shores of the Baltic Sea," the YMCA spokesman added.

The carefully preserved cities of Krakow, Warsaw and Gdansk thrive on the fertile banks of the Vistula River.

"Poland is a communist country, and yet we find a bemusing number of major contradictions to this in her everyday life," he said.

"A penetrating look at

"paradoxical Poland" reveals a unique communist regime living in almost peaceful co-existence with a powerful Catholic Church, one of the many bewildering aspects of contemporary Polish life.

Stan and Irene Paulauskas narrate "Exploring Poland," at 8:15 p.m. Saturday. Tickets are available at the door or by calling the YMCA at 721-7044.

Navajo Indian blankets on display at the Detroit Institute of Arts

A century ago the Navajo Indian blanket was both a practical necessity and a trade commodity. Today, 81 examples of this "folk art" by the first Americans makes an exhibition titled "The Navajo Blanket," on display through Nov. 25, in the South Wing-ground floor galleries of the Detroit Institute of Arts.

The bold, vivid work of the Navajo weavers elevates the versatile blanket to an extraordinary art form. Spanning the 19th century, these brilliantly-designed blankets originally were used as clothing, floor covering or bedding, as protection against the weather and also as prestige symbols for the owner or wearer.

Today, these blankets are collectors' items. The Los Angeles County Museum organized this exhibition by finding examples in major museums, in the hands of individual lenders and contemporary artists.

A HIGH POINT in the history of American Indian art, the Navajo blanket designs combine tradition and improvisation. Designs were developed in the mind and on the loom, without preliminary drawing or sketching.

There were even Navajo ceremonies to restore the spirit of a woman who had spent too much time at the loom. Bold geometries and vivid color combinations resulted. Then these blankets became known by their styles; serape, eye-dazzlers, wedge-weaves, chief patterns, stripe and banded.

In the late 19th century the trading post came to the Indian reservation. This event brought commercial yarns and aniline dyes into the Southwest. Colors could be explosive or pastel, energetic or mellow.

AT FIRST the white man's technology corrupted, then assisted this hogan industry; the Navajo blanket boomed. It became the rug for floors of American East coast buyers, and later gained on international reputation.

Free half-hour public tours of "The Navajo Blanket" will be given at 10:30 a.m. Tuesdays and Wednesdays, and 1 p.m. Tuesdays through Fridays and Sundays. Tours should meet at Farnsworth Lobby information desk.

Skilled weavers today continue this tradition and contemporary Navajo rugs will be offered at the Museum Shop, along with Navajo and Zuni jewelry.

Eastern orchestra sets second concert for season

The second concert of the 1973-74 series by the Eastern Michigan University-Civic Symphony Orchestra will be presented at 8 p.m. tomorrow in Pease Auditorium on the EMU campus in Ypsilanti.

The program includes "Three Orchestral Pieces" from Hector Berlioz; "The Damnation of Faust," the "Concerto in B-flat" for violin and orchestra of Luigi Boccherini and "Symphony No. 2 in D" by Brahms.

Featured as soloist in the cello concerto will be Edward Szabo, the orchestra's music director. Guest conductor Gabriel Villaurda will conduct the concerto and the Berlioz work.

Villaurda, director of orchestras at Tappan Junior High School and Huron High School, has toured Europe for the past two summers as conductor of the Youth for Understanding String Ensemble.

He has taught strings and conducted for five seasons at the National Music Camp at Interlochen.

Szabo, who has been music director and conductor of the University-Civic Symphony since 1968, is also chairman of the string area in the music department and instructor of violoncello and chamber music. He is also conductor of the Ann Arbor and Oak Park Symphony Orchestras.

The concert is open to the public without charge.

Area legislator supports 'grandparent' plan

An area legislator is putting his continued support and encouragement behind a foster "grandparent" program. The program, in part, offers a solution to the staff problems in mental health institutions.

(D-22nd District) said the program under the federal agency, ACTION, is a curious and beautiful mixture of a service to both youngsters and senior citizens.

The program places foster "grandparents" ranging in age from 60 to 81 with youngsters who are mentally retarded or emotionally disturbed.

THE "GRANDPARENTS" and children spend time together talking, playing and reading.

"We do more than provide a creative, helping outlet for our senior citizens," said Mrs. Marie Thayer, program director. "We assist many with personal counseling and serve as an advocate when they are frustrated or over-wrought with the maize of organizations affecting their health and welfare."

Foster "grandparents" have transformed institutions for mentally ill and retarded children across the state, she said. Originally funded by the Office of Economic Opportunity, and now under the Older American's Act, the program provides a half-day of services. That is, being a "grandpa" and "grandma" to an impaired or troubled child in return for small compensation and a meal.

"This is one of the brightest lights I've seen in the mental health programs," Owen said.

"FOR MANY PARENTS, often alone with their heavy responsibility for a troubled child, foster 'grandparents' have helped in sharing the family's problem and, in some instances, have extended their friendship and services to the family after the child has left the institution."

Because of their unique relationship and rapport achieved with a troubled child, the foster "grandparent" has proven to be an integral part of the treatment process, Mrs. Thayer said.

The current program is open only to institutional programs, but Mrs. Thayer thinks it will be expanded beyond the institutional setting to other settings where children will profit from a foster "kinship," such as day care centers for troubled or deprived children.

While the foster "grandparents" program is not a substitute for the full-time professional child care and treatment staff in the facilities, it has proven to be a very vital component in the total care for these special children, Owen said.

Jaycees sponsor pageant

The Belleville Jaycee Club and its auxiliary are sponsoring the 1974 Junior Miss Pageant to be held on Nov. 17 at the Belleville High School Auditorium.

The pageant is not a beauty contest. The contestants will be judged on poise and appearance, talent, scholastic achievement and physical fitness.

The pageant is open to any Belleville High School senior girl. The prizes include a 60 per cent paid tuition to Eastern Michigan University and savings bonds in addition to various gifts by local merchants.

Any senior high school girl interested in entering the Junior Miss Pageant is asked to call Mrs. Liss Hall at 484-1725.

Huron to simulate airplane crash

The simulation of an airplane crash in Huron Township to prepare for the possible occurrence of a real one is planned by Huron Township officials.

The staging of the crash rehearsal in one of the township's rural areas tentatively is scheduled for early November according to local township officials.

Huron Township is located in the southwestern part of Wayne County and is under a major runway pattern for airliners using Detroit Metropolitan Airport in Romulus.

The planned airplane crash simulation is being conducted to "coordinate police and fire departments of surrounding communities in the handling of a possible airplane crash situation."

Huron Township Supervisor George W. Moore said Huron police and fire officials are conferring with officials of Romulus and Brownstown, Van Buren and Sumpter townships to set up the planned rehearsal.

The supervisor added: "In an accident involving aircraft there usually are a lot of spectators and confusion. We have to prepare to stop confusion before it starts."

He added that Huron Township is seeking the assistance of adjacent communities as the township's own emergency crews would not be able to handle a large airplane crash.

Moore said the rehearsal's casualties (about 20 or more) will be provided by students attending Huron High School. Smoke bombs and fake bandages will give the rehearsal its realistic effects, he said.

Trustees rezone land for residential complex

Rezoning of land to permit the construction of a multiple residential development has received the approval of the Van Buren Township Board of Trustees.

The 37 acres are located on the south service drive of the I-94 Expressway between Belleville and Morton Taylor roads in the township.

The rezoning petition filed by Frank Volk Jr. of Belleville, representative of the Southfield firm of Volk and London, requested a change from single-family residential to multiple dwelling.

VOLK SAID the proposed development would contain "cluster homes" (single-family homes built in a group or cluster).

Both the township planning commission and the Wayne County Planning Commission have approved the rezoning request.

Seventy-five per cent of the homes in the complex would be two-bedroom ranch type with full basement and attached garage, Volk said. Some would be two-bedroom units with a den which could be used for a third bedroom.

The other 25 per cent would be three-bedroom, two story townhouses. The homes would sell from $36,000 to $45,000.

BOARD TRUSTEE Stephen Kuchta said Volk has a 17-point written consent agreement with the neighbors following an opinion poll which implements their concern about the property. Kuchta also said he thought the complex would be "an asset" to the community.

In other matters considered at the recent meeting of the board trustees received a signed statement from 23 citizens residing in the Denton Road area expressing their appreciation for the police enforcement of the residential area speed restriction on Denton Road by township police.

The board also: —sent to the township's sewer and water department for review the low bid of $3,454.94 submitted by College Dodge on the purchase of a department van. Five bid proposals were received by the township.

—approved the payment of $60 to William Smith for cemetery maintenance work.

—approved the payment of dues to the reciprocal Heating Council, Inc., in the amount of $20 and the payment of dues of $25 to the Association of Wayne County Treasurers.

—accepted a report from the Wayne County Road Commission regarding its denial of a petition by the township to vacate a portion of Westaway Street in the township.

—heard a report by Van Buren Township Clerk Mrs. Patricia Cullen who also is township's Peoples Community Hospital Authority (PCHA) representative on a PCHA communication disclosing that a new record of 216,301 patients were served

Association contributes funds to Belleville man

The Van Buren Public School Food Association recently contributed $300 to a Belleville man who lost his wife and two children in a train-truck crash.

The contribution was made from the proceeds of bake sales and other projects. It was presented to Rudy Elmer Rose, 28, who also seriously was injured in the accident.

Rose's wife, Marta, 24, and his two children, Tanya, 4, and Clint 3, were killed May 6 at the Martz Road crossing of the Norfolk and Western Railway tracks.

A truck being driven by Rose collided with an eight-car freight train, according to police. Because the crossing lacks safety gates and lights, the accident prompted an investigation by state officials on the delay of a Michigan Public Service order calling for the installation of safety signals at the crossing.

The installation of safeguards at the railroad crossing are under way.

The association also announced that it is planning on awarding a yearly scholarship to a senior who is interested in studying food services.

The officers of the association which was organized by David Baronian, supervisor of food services for the Van Buren Public School System, are: president, Mrs. Nelva Watkins; secretary, Mrs. Werdys Shephard; and treasurer, Mrs. Delores Morris.

Chairman resigns as commission head

Because the Van Buren Township Board of Trustees voided the results of a township planning commission election of officers, its chairman will resign.

Charles E. Walls of 11571 Juniper Dr., Belleville said he would resign the commission's chairmanship at its Nov. 7 meeting.

The recent election of Walls Leo Turney of 15995 Elwell Rd., Belleville as the commission's vice-chairman has been voided under provisions of a township resolution prohibiting members of township commissions and boards from serving more than two years in the same office.

The voiding of the election by the township board has "irritated" some planning commission members, according to a commission spokesman.

The resolution setting up the policy on the election of officers unanimously was approved by the township trustees at an April 10 meeting.

The planning commission did not receive a copy of the resolution until its October meeting. The planners decided to hold the annual election of officers before discussing the resolution even though the resolution concerned the election, Walls said.

The commission discussed the resolution after the election and felt that it was "ambiguous" and instructed Stephen Kuchta, a township board member who sits on the planning commission, to return the resolution to the board for clarification.

County will open office to mobilize volunteers

The Wayne County Board of Commissioners has established a new office to mobilize citizen volunteers to work on community problems.

The new office of the Wayne County Volunteer Programs Coordinator "will give concerned citizens new opportunities to help those less fortunate than themselves."

The board of commissioners received a $50,000 federal grant to underwrite the first year of the new program. The grant which runs through September, 1974, was awarded through ACTION, the federal agency for volunteer programs.

He said the program will serve all 43 cities and townships in the county, including Detroit, as well as the county government itself.

FitzPatrick said the county has extensive experience in the use of volunteers in advisory groups, task forces and committees. But, he said, "we have not yet begun to tap available voluntary resources for the direct service area."

"Since funds are not available to provide the full scope of services needed in the poverty community, volunteers can help fill service voids and augment currently operating programs."

FitzPatrick said volunteers will be recruited for two programs established recently by the board of commissioners—the Wayne County Juvenile Facility Network and the Wayne County Commission on Aging.

"I believe a new spirit of volunteerism is needed if the great problems of urban American are ever to be solved without resort to bigger government and bigger tax bites," he said. "I believe many talented citizens would be willing to volunteer some of their time to direct action to solve community problems if they only knew of avenues for involvement. This program will develop those avenues. What we accomplish here in the nation's third-largest county can inspire others beyond our boundaries." FitzPatrick said the county office would recruit volunteers for government programs in much the same fashion that United Community Services (UCS) provides volunteers for non-government agencies.

He said the county office and UCS would cooperate "to stimulate volunteerism and to achieve the most effective use of the talents of our citizens."

FITZPATRICK also announced the hiring of Anne DuConge as the volunteer programs coordinator.

Ms DuConge said she expects to develop programs of volunteer opportunities "for persons of virtually all ages."

"We will be able to use the talents of the skilled and unskilled and professionals and paraprofessionals in many fields," she said. "A new respect for the abilities of young people and senior citizens has developed in recent years, and we will encourage their participation, too."

Ms. duConge formerly was an administrative assistant in the Detroit-Wayne County health departments study which was completed last year.

HER STAFF consists of Margaret Moore, volunteer programs planner, and Christine Kelly, the office secretary.

Within the last year, the board of commissioners has used volunteer committees and task forces to advise the board on matters regarding the Wayne County Jail, the Child Development Center, Wayne County General Hospital, the Juvenile Facility

Network and the Wayne County Commission on Aging program.

The office of the Wayne County Volunteer Programs Coordinator is located at 1001 Detroit Water Board Building, 735 Randolph, Detroit, 48226.

Mahalak endorses Troutt

State Rep. Edward E. Mahalak (D-28th District) has announced his endorsement of candidates in Romulus' Nov. 6 general election.

In a prepared statement, Mahalak said: "I have carefully studied the programs, the intents and performances of both groups of candidates in the upcoming city election, and I believe that the most promising group dedicated to the building of Romulus while working towards lessening the burden of taxpayers is the Troutt group."

"Included with my picks is Jimmie C. Raspberry, whose record as township trustee, and mayor pro-tem, clearly has demonstrated that he has the best interest of Romulus in his heart."

4-H'ers create space in environment program

Young people are discovering how much fun it is to make their homes nicer places in which to live. And they are doing it in the national 4-H home environment program.

Supervised by the Cooperative Extension Service and sponsored by the S&H Foundation, Inc., the program stresses development of skills necessary to enhance the interior and exterior of their homes.

The young decorators are encouraged to plan their home surroundings much as they would the natural environment, for beauty, comfort, health, safety and adequate space. USING THE PRINCIPLES of design-form, scale, light, patterns, and texture, 4-Hers in the program plan, create and refurbish, and build living spaces uniquely their own. Boys as well as girls are encouraged to participate in the 4-H home environment program and many young men take the opportunity to show their ingenuity.

One young man, a 1972 national winner in the program, rebuilt his family's kitchen. He installed new kitchen cabinets, floor coverings and wall paneling. He also gave an assist with the needed electrical wiring and plumbing jobs.

The young man and others in the 4-H home environment program enjoy working with wood, fabrics and other materials in their creative pursuits.

ANOTHER 4-Her and her proudest accomplishment in the 4-H home environment program was the restoration of a living room chair. She stripped the wood, restained it and reupholstered the chair.

A Georgia 4-Her likes to make a variety of room accessories — ceramics, paintings, flower arrangements and furniture.

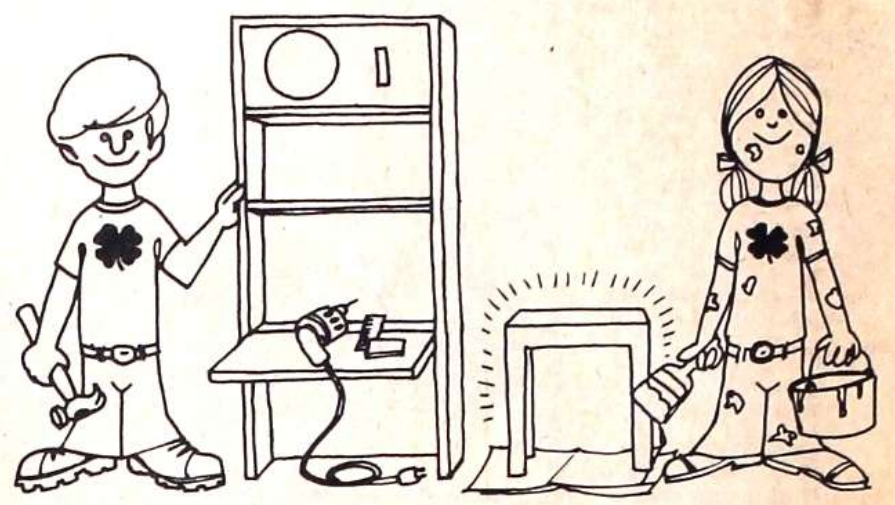

And his environmental talents are equally evident around the exterior of the home which has been turned into an outdoor living area.

The 4-H home environmentalists can add recognition to their feelings of satisfaction. The S&H Foundation, Inc., provides a full schedule of awards for outstanding accomplishments.

IN EACH COUNTY, up to four medals of honor are offered. A winner from each state receives an expense-paid trip to National 4-H Congress in Chicago, Nov. 25-29.

And at the annual 4-H event, six national winners are selected by the Cooperative Extension Service to receive $700 educational scholarships from the program sponsor.

For information on 4-H home environment, contact the county extension office.

Follow these steps

For gift of nature's color, plant flowering shrubs now

Nature's gift of vibrant living colors in flowering shrubs can be one of the easiest and most economical for any gardener and, in most parts of the country, this can be a good time for the planting.

But good planning is an essential step before the planting project actually begins.

Because of the wide variety from which to choose, you can find a flowering shrub to suit your wishes perfectly — a hedge, windbreak, screen, or a changing focal point for the landscape.

PICK THE location, then decide just what you want in the shrub — how high, how wide, what colors, what texture.

Check the environmental conditions — sunny or shady, hot or cold, wet or dry. When all these factors are known, your garden center can advise you of the varieties best suited to your purpose.

Once you have selected your shrub it is best to plant as quickly as possible. Be sure the roots or ball do not dry out, and allow plenty of air to circulate around the branches.

Keep the shrubs in a cool, shady place before planting. Additional steps suggested by the American Association of Nurserymen will add to your success in planting.

FIRST CLIP away any dead or broken branches, flowers or roots. Soak bare root plants in water shortly before planting, especially if the plant appears to be dry or wilted.

Prepare the hole large enough to allow the roots plenty of room to spread out naturally, and deep enough to allow the shrubs to sit about an inch below its previous soil line. With balled or container-grown shrubs, the hole should be about 50 per cent larger and deeper than the ball.

Mix the soil you have removed from the hole with peat moss or other organic materials — particularly if the soil is clay or sandy. Sprinkle the bottom and sides of the hole with peat moss or other organic material to improve moisture retention and allow the roots to grow freely.

PLACE THE plant in the center of the hole making sure it is straight and sitting at the desired level, then begin back-filling with the soil and peat

WEATHERPROOF THE FEATHERED FRIENDS—Little by little housing developments have taken away areas in which animals and birds find their food and shelter. One of the ways to protect and encourage birds to live near us is to provide feeding shelters and houses. By so doing, we not only help them, but bird-watching can be a great deal of fun too. And, when you stop to think that each bird eats his own weight in insects every day, they repay our kindness to them in full measure. Seven assorted feeding shelters and houses are shown here with actress Julie Parrish. All are decorative and will add a colorful touch to your yard. Furthermore, they're designed just the way Mr. & Mrs. Bird like them. To obtain the pattern assortment number C12X for building all seven of the shelters and houses pictured, send $3 (add 50 cents for airmail delivery) by currency, check or money order to: Steve Ellingson, Associated Newspapers Pattern Dept., P.O. Fight lawn weeds before they appear; Take care with different chemicals

The best time to fight lawn weeds is before they appear, and that means taking a few simple steps at the end of one growing season or before the next one begins.

Some suggestions offered by the American Association of Nurserymen (AAN) can be helpful in weed control efforts.

While there are different chemicals available to kill most types of weeds, the nurserymen advise they be used with great care, sparingly and only according to directions on the label or instructions you can get from your county agricultural agent or nursery garden center.

NEVER USE A chemical just on suspicion, the nurserymen say, because quite often there is a better way to solve the problem.

The most effective weed control is with the maintenance of a good turf cover — few weeds can compete with a tight sod that is growing vigorously and kept mowed at the proper height.

If, in spite of this, weeds continue to be a problem and you are going to adopt chemical measures, advice from the nursery industry can make your effort more effective.

Chemical weed correctives should be used only on established lawns since some can be harmful to tender, new grass. By the same token, the material should be kept away from other plants.

EVEN SMALL amounts on certain plants such as roses can cause injury. When only a few weeds are present, spot treat instead of treating the whole lawn.

It is a good practice to fertilize the lawn immediately before or after you apply the weed control material, to encourage the spread of grass to fill in any empty spaces which may have resulted.

The lawn should not be watered for at least 24 hours after the application of most weed killers. If a rain should fall within that period, though, do not retreat the lawn immediately, but if no results are evident within 10 days to two weeks a second application may be necessary.

This final word from the AAN is highly important.

Left-over chemicals should not be disposed of by pouring them down the drain. Be sure the container is marked clearly to identify its contents, then store it safely out of the reach of children and well removed from any seeds or fertilizers.

Here's treatment

Plant ailments appear

Now, when some outdoor plants are coming inside for the winter and indoor gardening gets more attention, a number of different kinds of plant ailments can appear.

Some of these problems call for professional care, but many of them will be relieved by amateur treatment following a few tips provided by the American Association of Nurserymen (AAN).

Some of the most common symptoms of ill health among indoor plantings, are yellowing of the foliage, loss of older foliage, and leaf spots.

Foliage may yellow because of poor light (in which case additional fluorescent or incandescent lighting is called for), soil that is too wet, or excessive applications of fertilizer which have injured the roots. If none of these conditions appears to be the cause and the plant has a good root system, then additional fertilizer may be needed.

Spots on the leaves may be caused by too much sunlight, soil that is too dry, or by various plant diseases or insects.

Hairy-leaved plants may be spotted by drops of hot or cold water. Water used for these plants should be room temperature.

If the cause is a disease or insect infestation, specific information should be obtained from the county agricultural agent or nursery garden center.

Indoor plants can lose their older foliage as a result of insufficient light, too much or too little water, or high temperatures.

Plants can grow indoors with a fairly broad range of temperature; however, the ideal is about 70 degrees during the day and slightly lower at night.

Plant bulbs in fall

Authorities suggest planting roses in fall

Raise the question of whether to plant roses in the fall or spring at any garden club meeting and you can be sure of introducing an interesting argument.

Most authorities agree that spring is the wise planting time in very cold states where a hard winter comes early; however, elsewhere opinions are divided.

The American Association of Nurserymen takes the position that either fall or spring planting is perfectly satisfactory if weather conditions are favorable.

They find that serious rose enthusiasts decide for themselves which season is best for their own particular situation — and many plant some rose bushes during each season.

If you are considering the question for yourself, these comments from the nursery growers and garden center operators may set your mind at ease.

At this time of the year, rose plants are freshly dug at the nursery when they are just going into their rest period — an ideal time for planting. Soil conditions in your yard or garden probably are healthy at the end of a growing season. And you probably have more time to devote to planning your roses now than at other times of the year when other gardening responsibilities demand your attention.

The roots of your rose bushes never are completely dormant, so the ones you plant now will be somewhat established and in place when the next growing season begins.

Roses planted in the fall should be covered with a mound of soil until growth begins in the spring.

Fertilize trees once per year

Either after the leaves have fallen from a shade tree or just when new ones appear in the next growing season are the two times when it is best to feed the tree with fertilizer — and the job should be done once a year, according to the American Association of Nurserymen.

Feed the shade tree when the ground is damp. Use a crowbar or some similar tool to make a circle of holes in the ground about 18 inches apart, ideally eight to 12 inches deep, underneath the tree at about the point of the end of the longest limbs. Put two or three tablespoons of fertilizer in each hole, top them off with soil and the job is done.

This process assures two benefits. The fertilizer is applied near to the root of the tree where it will do the most good, and it is beneath the level of grass roots to avoid over-abundant growth where it is not desired.

YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT "DIRTY POLITICS"

Your City Is At Stake---Your Home---Your Family---Your Future!
Take A Moment---And Learn A Cold, Hard Fact About "Dirty Politics"!

SOME SERIOUS CHARGES HAVE BEEN MADE AGAINST YOUR COMMUNITY BY SOME NOT SO SERIOUS CANDIDATES SEEKING POLITICAL OFFICE...CANDIDATES WHO ARE MASTERS AT SMEAR TACTICS...CHARACTER ASSASSINATION...HALF-TRUTHS. ONE OF THOSE HALF-TRUTHS INVOLVES A STATE AUDIT OF THE ROMULUS CITY GOVERNMENT THAT WAS RELEASED LAST MAY. A CANDIDATE FOR MAYOR, WHO LOST HIS LAST TWO CAMPAIGNS FOR POLITICAL OFFICE...BY WIDE MARGINS...AND BY USING THESE SAME TACTICS...HAS GONE TO A GREAT DEAL OF EXPENSE TO TRY AND FRIGHTEN YOU INTO BELIEVING THERE'S SOMETHING WRONG IN YOUR GOVNMNT. THERE ISN'T! AND THIS LETTER BY A STATE OFFICIAL WHO HAS NO DIRECT OR INDIRECT INTEREST IN THE OUTCOME OF NEXT TUESDAY'S ELECTION ATTESTS TO THAT...A STATE OFFICIAL WHO, BY THE WAY, HAS NOT TAKEN A POSITION IN THIS ELECTION.

CHECK THESE FACTS--

THE DATE... This shows Mayor Hyle Carmichael was well aware of the state investigation into the Romulus government far in advance of the release of the final report. He co-operated in that investigation and immediately instituted suggestions recommended by state auditors. He did not holler "fire" to the city council; he did not blame the city's accountants. A quiet man of dignity and strength, Carmichael met city problems head on, resolved them, and moved forward with other city business.

COUNCILMAN ED BIZEK, JR.... also was aware of the audit far in advance of the final report. As a councilman, Bizek approved an administration budget and city expenditures. Defeated in the primary for reelection, he now is a member of the opposition that charges irregularities...irregularities that if they did exist, Councilman Bizek had to approve of...since he did not call attention to the audit during the primary election. Of course, at that time, he was not a member of the opposition. We do not feel Councilman Bizek has done anything wrong.

"ABSOLUTELY NO MISAPPROPRIATION OF FUNDS..." The key phrase in this letter, this shows Mayor Carmichael did not have to fear state repercussions for himself, his administration, or his city. While accounting practices were to be revised, there was no implication on the part of state auditors that there was intentional impropriety in the government. If there had been, recommendations for prosecution, it would have been made to the Attorney General.

NEW CITIES. The letter indicates that often "new cities" experience difficulties in accounting practices and procedures that are acceptable to the state. Usually these practices are revised to meet state standards without all the hullabaloo and commotion that these recommendations have caused...but, then, too, there generally isn't an election...and you are not exposed to "dirty politics"...and smear...and the most deplorable tactics possible for good people doing a good job for a great city.

Belleville hosts revenge-minded A. P.

Tigers bow to Dearborn, 10-7

One year has passed since Belleville claimed a double overtime 10-7 victory over Suburban 8. Conference opponent Allen Park. Belleville hasn't forgotten it.

And you can bet that Allen Park still remembers the hard-to-forget defeat. The Jaguars will be in town Friday night to try to even up the score.

"They will be coming over here for revenge," said Belleville head Coach Keith Emerson, "you can count on that. And we haven't been doing anything right since that 44-0 massacre by Trenton. It's going to be interesting to see how this one turns out."

Emerson said that Allen Park is a young team with a lot of quickness and "is coming on strong at the end of the season." To lead the offense the Jaguars have quarterback Burt Beiney who is an excellent passer.

AND THE PARKERS couldn't find a more opportune time to challenge their league rivals. On the injury list is senior quarterback Gary VanBuhler who has been sidelined for the past two games with a knee injury. Also on the bench is veteran linebacker Otty Turrentine. He also has knee problems.

In the game against Dearborn, the Tigers lost Victor Busby, a tackle, who has a chipped bone in his ankle. He's out for the rest of the season.

But Belleville couldn't blame injuries for their loss to Dearborn, which had been floundering in the depths of the conference all season long.

Ineptness and the multitude of errors led to Belleville's demise.

"We just aren't getting the performances from the boys," said Emerson. "We had our chances to beat them (Dearborn) but couldn't capitalize on them."

DEARBORN grabbed a 3-0 first quarter lead when Bob Knoop booted a 31-yard field goal after Pioneer drive stalled.

Belleville's furthest penetration in the opening period was to the Pioneer 20-yard line where the Tigers handed the ball over on downs.

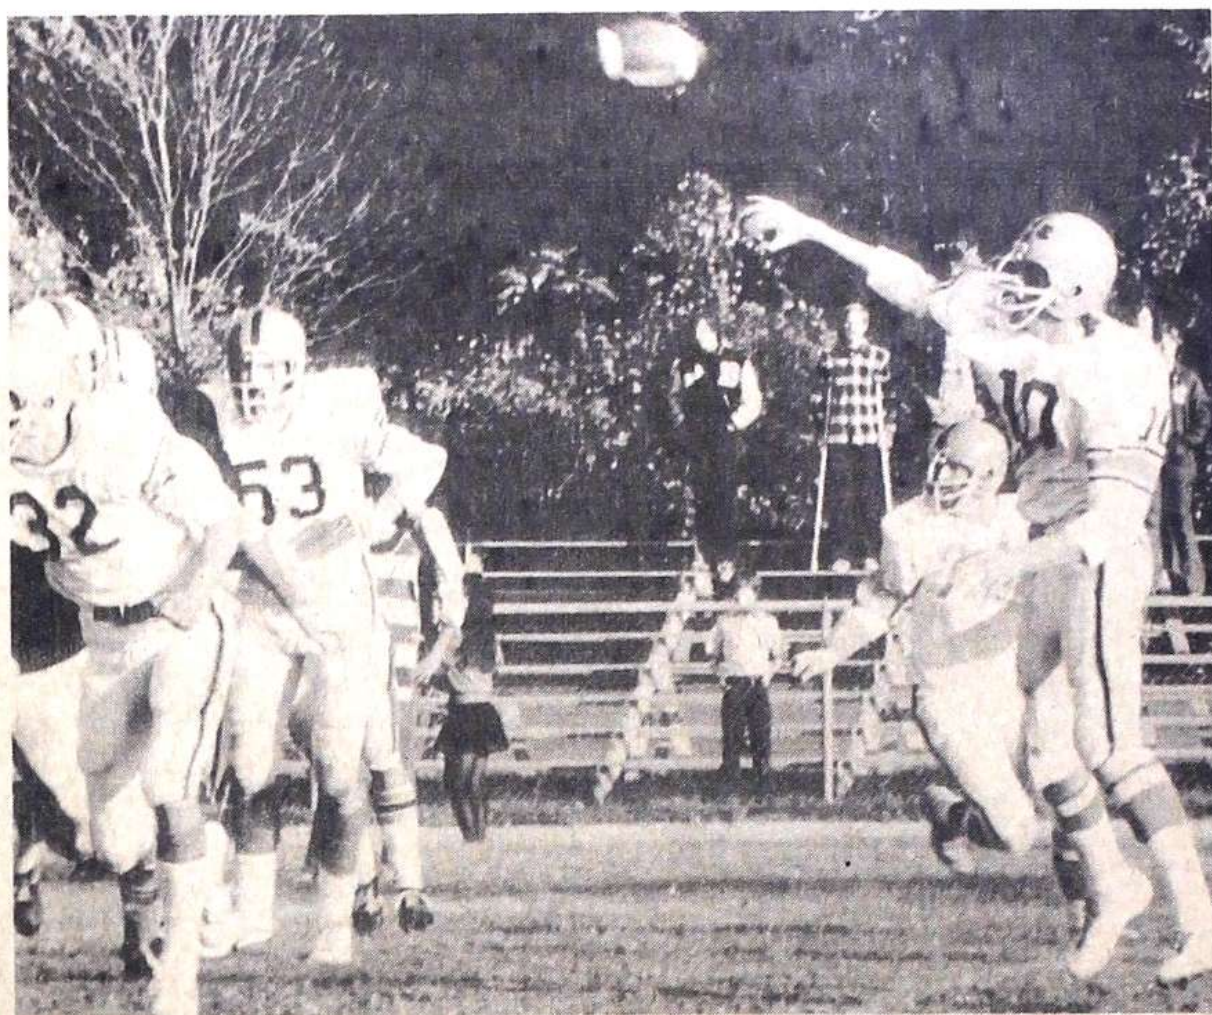

Neither team could score after the initial quarter until the final stanza when Dearborn padded its lead to 10-0 on five yard TD sprint by Dan Klopke.

BELLEVILLE put on its best show of the evening after the ensuing kickoff when the Tigers marched 80-yards to score. Stiltner engineered the sustained drive using pass completions to Joe Stillwagon and Bill Kinsella.

He polished off the final seven with a pass to Bruce Ford for the touchdown. Stillwagon then booted the point after.

One of the bright spots to the Belleville game was the performance of Mark Verrot, a defensive halfback who had seven solo tackles and also intercepted a pass.

"We never did get field position on them. We were forced to stop them three times inside our five yard line," said Emerson.

BACK AT OLD JOB — With regular signal-caller Gary Van Buhler on the injury list, Belleville's Lee Stiltner (10) is back at his old job as quarterback. Van Buhler sustained a knee injury and has been sidelined the past two games and Stiltner has been given the responsibility of cranking up the Tigers' ailing offense. Stiltner managed to pass for one TD against Dearborn but it wasn't enough as the Tigers bowed to the Pioneers 10-7. Belleville will attempt to snap out of its four-game losing streak Friday night when Allen Park comes to town.

Amputee gridder's plight

By TOM MOORADIAN

(Editor's Note: This column appeared in THE DAILY EAGLE last week and spurred state-wide interest to help Ron Suemnick stay in uniform. The story was picked up by the Associated Press and other metropolitan newspapers.)

"It's a tragedy," said the woman over the telephone, "the boy had the courage to work hard despite the handicap and make the team, now he's asked to leave. And his team may have to forfeit any victories they have won."

"Do something about it," she pleaded.

The woman was discussing the plight of Ron Suemnick, a 17-year-old New Boston High senior who had a brilliant athletic career ahead of him until one summer day in 1972 when a tractor accident severed his right foot between knee and ankle. The left foot was badly mangled requiring 20 stitches.

Ron managed to work his way back, and this year made Coach Jim Rossow's team as a tackle.

FRIDAY, DURING THE Tecumseh-Huron football game, one of the referees spotted Suemnick's artificial limb and immediately halted the game. The official said that it was against the state rules for a player to wear such a device.

However, the Tecumseh coach said he didn't care if Ron played and the game proceeded.

Yesterday, Allen Bush, director of athletics of the Michigan High School Athletic Association (MHSAA), explained: "There actually isn't a MHSAA rule on this subject, but the state has adopted the National Federation Rules Book which clearly states that a player is prohibited from utilizing artificial hands, legs or arms."

Bush pointed out the reasons behind the rule were two-fold: first, to protect the player from injuring himself, and second, to protect other players from being injured by the handicapped player.

"If the player who is handicapped doesn't wear an artificial limb, then there is no problem," Bush said. "We don't even allow a player to wear padding on the leg that may cause injury to another."

"This rule was adopted on the advice of the medical staff a few years ago."

BUSH STRESSED that this rule applies only to football and not to the other sports.

Ron, who is the younger brother of Butch Suemnick, a three-sports athlete a few years ago at Huron, isn't bitter over the ruling.

"I guess I will have to accept it," he said. "But, I wish I could play."

If he does Huron will have an ineligible player and could forfeit all of their games. And what of the games Suemnick already has participated in?

Huron Coach Jim Rossow said they are awaiting a ruling about their one victory, a 12-6 triumph over Airport.

"WE ARE GOING to do our darnest to see to it that Ron plays," said the Huron coach. "I just can't understand it. Sure, if the device or a device could inflict harm on a player, then I would be the first to say the player with the special device shouldn't play."

"But, this is a different case. Ron couldn't hurt anyone. Whatever the outcome, you can't say enough about this kid. He has been able to overcome all obstacles, and his desire to excel as an athlete and accomplish deeds that many others would fear to tackle shows what he's made of."

"He's just a wonderful athlete and person, Rossow added.

WITH THE CROSS COUNTRY season just about over, the path is cleared for the fifth annual All-Area Cross Country Meet which will be hosted this year by Livonia Franklin.

Franklin Coach Bob Holmes informed us that, though the time and date haven't been set, the meet will be run shortly after the state finals.

The post-season classic was established to determine the top 10 runners in the area and designate them as such. The Daily Eagle and Associated Newspapers awards team members medals.

Hey, coach, we need schedules

Would you believe that the basketball, and swimming and wrestling season is just a couple of weeks away?

We would.

For the sports department has just received its first winter sports schedules from one of the area high schools. Thanks. And, if we could get the other 12 athletic directors to mail in their schedules, we'd be in business.

So, if possible, coach, please mail the schedules to The Daily Eagle, Sports Desk, 35540 Michigan Ave., West, Wayne, Michigan, 48184. Please. Thank you.

FRUSTRATING — A coach has his ups and downs and for Romulus' first year football Coach Jim Stallings it's been a year of frustration. After breaking a six-game losing streak two weeks ago, Stallings' Eagles slipped back in the losing column Friday. And giving the shove was Highland Park which won a 16-8 decision. Romulus will bring the curtains down on the 1973 season Friday at Oak Park.

Belleville 7th at regional

The Wayne-Westland Community School District's two high schools - Wayne Memorial and John Glenn - ran 1-2, respectively, at the regional cross country meet hosted by Glenn Saturday.

Wayne garnered 56 points to beat out its arch-rival, Glenn which had 63 points in a meet that assembled 11 teams.

It's real exciting to win," said Wayne's Doug Garrett, "there were some fine teams and coaches at our regional and I was proud to have a team at the top of such a group."

Wayne and Glenn will represent the regional at the state finals which will be held on Saturday on the Grand Blanc Golf Course in Grand Blanc, Mich.

THE DUEL for individual honors was won by Jim Baumgartner, carrying University of Detroit High's banner. He beat Glenn's Dave Kirst to the finish by three-tenths of a second. Baumgartner was clocked in 15:23 while Kirst had a 15:26 performance.

A few steps behind Kirst was Wayne Memorial's Ray Nowak, who was third (15:34).

Trailing Wayne and Glenn in the final team standings were Bishop Borgess (93), Garden City West (102), University of Detroit High (111), Garden City East (150), Belleville (167), Cherry Hill (198), Crestwood (242), An-

Pass thefts send Huron to sixth loss

New Boston Huron High passers are going to have to be a bit more careful against Grosse Ile Friday than they were last Friday at Monroe Jefferson.

The last-place Monroe team ran two interceptions back 40 and 45 yards for touchdowns in a 22-point second quarter to send Huron reeling to its fifth Huron League loss, 28-6.

Chief quarterback Tim Hinojosa fell prey to the harrassing Jefferson secondary and only managed to gain 46 yards via his passing, not to mention the interceptions.

FOR JEFFERSON, the win was the very first of the season against six losses, but still didn't pull them out of the league cellar. Instead, it dropped Huron down to the bottom too. The Chiefs are 1-5 in the league and 1-6 overall, their only victory coming at the expense of Carlton Airport.

One explanation for Huron's score ineffectiveness in the passing lanes could be the lack of blocking Hinojosa was getting. At least that's the feeling of Coach Jim Rossow. "We plainly were not blocking well offensively and Jefferson adjusted excellently on defense," he said.

Monroe locked it up by scoring 22 points in the second quarter to erase a 6-0 Huron lead. The Chiefs had tallied in the opening period after capitalizing on a Jefferson fumble on its own 35, then sending Dave Durham barreling over from the eight two minutes later. A two-point conversion pass by Hinojosa failed.

JEFFERSON USHERED in the second period by going 99 yards for the tying score, then struck quickly with the two point-producing pass thefts to put the game out of reach. The hosts recorded their fourth and final TD in the final period after a 45-yard drive, while holding Huron scoreless and at bay since the opening stanza. Jefferson had 125 yards rushing and 72 passing. Huron ran for 114 yards, led by Durham's 88.

"I didn't think we could qualify as a team, but I did feel we should have qualified as least one more for the state."

Governor to dedicate Michigan highway link

One of the most awesome engineering and construction feats ever achieved in Michigan will be officially dedicated to the public Thursday, according to Gov. Milliken.

The State Highway Commission said Milliken will officiate in the formal opening of the final link of Michigan's Interstate 75 Freeway, completing the 395-mile route from the Canadian border at Sault Ste. Marie to the Ohio border near Toledo.

It is Michigan's longest freeway.

PUBLIC dedication ceremonies are scheduled for 2 p.m. on the I-75 interchange with M-55 west of West Branch. The final link of the super highway extends 28 miles from West Branch to near Roscommon.

In its entirety, I-75 crosses the nation for 1,685 miles from Sault Ste. Marie to Miami, Fla., although some sections in other states have not been completed.

State Highway Commission Chairman E.V. Erickson said the formal opening of the 28-mile section symbolically recognizes "the impressive achievements of various, separate links or this highway, including the Mackinac Bridge and the Rouge River Bridge."

The five-mile Mackinac Bridge — on the I-75 route but not part of the freeway — was formally opened exactly 16 years (Nov. 1, 1957) prior to Thursday's final I-75 opening.

"TRULY A 'Main Street' for Michigan," Erickson said, "I-75 meanders down from the Canadian border across the eastern end of the Upper Peninsula, over the Straits of Mackinac, past scores of lakes and streams, broad stretches of forests and farms, through the industrial cities of the Saginaw Valley, through the huge metropolis of Detroit and its suburbs — the main line of Transportation, linking them all together."

Erickson said I-75 has been in some stage of construction for more than 20 years.

"Thousands of persons, many millions of dollars and much ingenuity and genius have contributed to this uncommon achievement," Erickson added. "Thursday, we will pause momentarily to officially recognize and celebrate this achievement — and we invite the general public to share this moment with us."

Gary Owen says:

Tribunal should handle state tax conflicts

By GARY M. OWEN State Representative 22nd District

The establishment of a tax tribunal will benefit taxpayers by making available a single forum with special competencies to handle tax conflicts.

Perhaps the main objective for the creation of a tax tribunal is to remove certain types of tax controversies from the overburdened state tax commission and limit that commission to administrative functions, including closer attention to equalization and practices.

Property tax controversies presently are resolved by the state tax commission which is the supervisor of and advisor to local assessing officials.

THE STATE TAX commission performs not only the initial investigatory work but also makes the final decision on assessing complaints based upon its own investigation. Because the state tax commission performs investigation and then rules on its own investigation, there is an appearance of impropriety (being both judge and jury).

The creation of a tax tribunal which will handle individual assessment controversies will indeed eliminate this appearance of impropriety. It is imperative that a full-time tribunal be established to free the state tax commission from the enormous task of resolving more than 7,000 assessment conflicts per year and to replace the part-time state board of tax appeals which is months behind in its caseload.

A record of proceedings should be kept by the tax tribunal to insure that the decision is based on the facts presented.

The present volume of cases involving tax controversies cannot be managed by the existing courts of record. Therefore, the tax tribunal would replace the tax appeals board, circuit courts and the Michigan Court of Claims in all litigation relative to state taxes and the probate courts in the case of inheritance taxes.

THE BILL SPECIFIES that the tribunal consists of five members appointed by the governor. Two will be attorneys. One will be a certified public accountant, one will be a certified assessor or professional real estate appraiser and one will be a person who has been a tax administrator in local or state government.

In short, the tribunal would be a forum for the trial of all state and local tax con-troveries. Passage of the Tax Tribunal Bill will cost approximately $1 million.

The revenues of state and local government will not significantly be affected. The administration of taxes would be facilitated by freeing the circuit courts from the task of tax controversy resolution and, by the same token, the quality of tax conflict resolution should be greatly improved under a specialized tribunal.

I am very much committed toward property tax reform and will give this bill very strong support during the next two weeks as we debate it on the House floor.

Metro Airport manager elected as council head

The managing director of the Wayne County Road Commission and manager of Detroit Metropolitan Airport in Romulus, has been elected president of the Airport Operators Council International (AOOI) for 1974. The election took place at the council's annual meeting in Dallas. He is James M. Davey.

Davey, a Marine fighter pilot in World War II, is an attorney and has been responsible for much of the development of Metro Airport. After graduation from Wayne State University Law School in 1948, Davey joined the legal staff of the road commission.

Davey was very active in Metro's early expansion programs and went on to become airport manager and then managing director. With Detroit Metro now the hub of Southeastern Michigan air transportation network, the first phase of a new $300 million expansion is well underway.

Davey has said that because of the road commission's duties in regards to roads, water supply, sewage disposal and the county's park system, the commission is particularly effective in handling and furthering an integrated transportation system for the area.

Energy crisis threatens to close Michigan schools

Many Michigan schools may be forced to close for protracted periods of time this winter if the energy crisis worsens. Michigan Superintendent of Public Instruction John W. Porter said.

"Unless immediate steps are taken to prevent the fuel shortages presently being anticipated by many school districts, many schools won't be able to stay open all winter—particularly if Michigan experiences a hard winter," Porter told the State Board of Education during a discussion of the energy crisis. "This (the energy crisis) is potentially a far more serious crisis than the school closings that occurred in some areas during September when teachers declined to return to the classrooms without contracts," he said.

He said the Michigan Department of Education is working closely with school districts affected by shortages in an effort to obtain adequate allocations of the fuels they need.

"However, it must be recognized that schools are not the No. 1 priority for heating fuels," he warned. "Presently, top priority is being given to homes, hospitals and other health and public service agencies."

Porter said he has named an energy task force to look into various alternatives that school districts may be forced to consider if they are forced to close their schools because of a shortage of fuel.

"If the crisis worsens, it may be necessary for us to ask the legislature to adopt special legislation to cover situations where school districts are unable to provide 180 days of school this year because of the energy crisis," he said.

The superintendent said Michigan Attorney General Frank J. Kelley will be asked whether a shortage of fuel can be considered "an act of God" by school districts that may be forced to close for that reason.

Schools that are unable to operate because of severe weather are able to count those days as a day of school for purposes of earning state school aid and the question has come up whether days missed because of energy shortages can be counted, also.

Porter said guidelines designed to help local school districts conserve energy are being developed and should be ready in about six weeks. In the meantime, he said, letters will be sent to all school districts to alert them to the situation and notify them the state board's energy task force is looking at various alternatives and will make specific recommendations when it completes its work.

Reps attend seminar

Representatives of Real Estate One servicing Western Wayne County took part in the firm's recent annual manager's seminar at Sugar Loaf Village near Traverse City.

The 160 people in attendance consisted of brokers, managers, assistant managers, members of the Million Dollar Club and spouses of the participants from the firm's 43 offices.

A presentation of the results of an in-depth consumer motivation and image study, which was conducted by an independent research firm, highlighted the work portion of the three sessions.

Commenting on the research study, Richard S. Elsea, president of Real Estate One said, "To the best of our knowledge, this is the first time a real estate brokerage has hired an independent research firm for an in-depth market analysis."

We don't think you should have to wait around for an auto loan.

So we cut down on the red tape and traditional procedures you have to wade through when you get an auto loan from most other places.

And came up with an idea called on-the-spot loan approval. It means your loan gets approved fast.

Because all our branch managers have the authority to approve loans themselves. So you don't have to sit around while the person you're dealing with calls somebody else for approval.

We handle all our other loans quickly and efficiently, too.

Handling them any other way would just be a waste of time.

'New Life Mission' to be held in area

A "New Life Mission" will be held by Faith United Methodist Church Sunday through next Friday with The Rev. Kenneth Harris as the guest missionary and speaker. Services will be held at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Sunday and 7:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. The church building is located at the corner of Michigan Avenue and Denton Road. The public is invited to attend. "New Life Mission" is an effort at evangelism sponsored by the United Methodist denomination. It is designed to bring new life into a local church through preaching, teaching, prayer, and talk-back sessions with the visiting missionary.

It also is designed to deepen the spiritual life of those already in the church and reach out in ministry to those persons outside the church. The Rev. Harris was born in Michigan's Shiawassee county and graduated from both Asbury College in Kentucky, and Hama Divinity School in Ohio.

He received full ordination into the Detroit Conference of the Methodist Church in 1954 and was appointed to serve the Byron Methodist Church. Under his ministry, the church at Byron increased its membership and budget, tripled church school attendance, and built a new educational unit which was nearly paid for before he was appointed to another church in 1966.

At present, he is the pastor of the Lexington and Bethel United Methodist Churches near Port Huron.

4-H Club has new members

The Branding Irons 4-H Club recently welcomed new members into the club. The members include Kevin Hamilton, Debbie Gabriel, Tammy Gabriel, Darlene Drou, Colette Bradley, Terry Stone, Thelma Pierson, Dawn Grim and Diana Disney.

At the recent club meeting Sharon Bosman volunteered to be the new sewing leader. The Horse Club is seeking new ways of making money. Club members were asked to contact Marty Wood or a club member with ideas.

Funeral services held for resident

Funeral services for a long-time area resident were held Saturday at Roberts Brothers Funeral Home. The Rev. Joy E. Arthur conducted the service for Mrs. Arthur (Mary) Ives. Interment was in Hillside Cemetery, Belleville.

Born Mary Wilson on July 3, 1906, Mrs. Ives moved with her family to the Belleville area from New Boston in 1919 and lived the remainder of her life here. She met and married her English-born husband in 1945 and they made their home at 456 N. Liberty St.

An assistant librarian for 33 years, she retired June 5, 1971, from the Fred C. Fischer Branch of the Wayne County Federated Library System.

She received her Civil Service appointment in January, 1938 and was assigned to care for the small collection of books then housed in the front of the Van Buren Township Hall.

Her on-the-job training began under the tutelage of Mrs. Nina Todd and continued under seven subsequent librarians.

HERE'S WHY THE MAYOR OF ROMULUS MUST BE DEFEATED NOV. 6

BECAUSE HE HAS NOT ANSWERED THESE QUESTIONS!

WHY has Carmichael refused to debate Terry Troutt in public?

WHY hasn't the mayor replied to the charges in the State Audit?

WHY did he spend the taxpayers' money for liquor and parties?

WHY has the mayor kept over a million dollars of the city's money in Manufacturers bank (the old Carmichael bank) in which the Carmichael family own a great deal of stocks? The city's money is bearing only 5%, when the city's money could be bearing 7½% in another bank.

WHY does the mayor boast of being a banker for over 30 years—was it because his family were owners of the old Romulus bank? Why did the bank finally let him go?

WHY does he claim to be a businessman when the State Audit charges he misspent, misused and mishandled $808,000 of the taxpayers' money?

WHY hasn't the mayor carried out any of the items in the last 3½ years that he now is promising in his so-called platform?

WHY and with whom does he rendezvous on many afternoons away from city hall?

WHY did he give a letter to Councilman Block authorizing him unlimited buying and selling deals for the city in violation of the charter—who's profiting?

WHY does he permit Councilman Oakley to use city engineers for private work on his private property at taxpayers' expense?

WHY hasn't he claimed credit for any accomplishment or programs during his term as mayor since 1970?

WHY did the mayor start paving only small stretches of roads just before the election, in order to mislead the people?

WHY hasn't the mayor had a city plan for Romulus in his 3½ years in office?

WHY did the mayor okay his long-time personal secretary to register to vote fraudulently while she actually lives in the city of Dearborn?

WHY did the mayor try to get the city council to pay for his tabs at a very popular local Inn he frequents often?

WHY has the mayor turned Elmer Johnson Park into a Dog Cemetery, while he tells the people he wants recreation and better parks in Romulus?

WHY?

Because the mayor has no answers to the above questions that anyone can believe.

WHY?

We, the people of Romulus, can not afford another term of his kind of inefficient and do-nothing government!

CORRECTION:

City of Romulus Charter Proposals.

A YES vote will initiate the following language.

(1) Other Departments and Commissions. The Council shall have the power and authority to establish, create, and eliminate such other commissions and departments when, in its opinion, the proper administration of the business and interest of the City require. As used in this Charter, a department is a division of the administrative branch of the government consisting of a department head and employees under his direction; and a commission is a group of persons appointed for a specific purpose who have no jurisdiction over municipal employees, other than such clerical personnel as shall be designated by the council.

Area residents with questions or comments about environmental matters are invited to register them directly with the Environmental Protection Branch of the Department of Natural Resources (DNR), via a telephone "hot line" now in operation.

The new hot line has been established as a means through which public expressions of environmental concern can be more expeditiously received, reviewed and responded to by the DNR. It also is a key factor in an increased department public participation program, which DNR Director A. Gene Gazlay presented to the Natural Resources Commission at its September meeting.

IN DIRECTING that the hot line be established, Gazlay said he had been impressed by the apparent success of a hot line operated by the Michigan Department of Licensing and Regulation, in connection with the new Land Sales Control Act.

The hot line telephone number is (517) 373-8229. Callers will hear a short recorded message explaining the system. They then will be asked to briefly state their questions, suggestions or criticism regarding environmental matters.

To assure a prompt response, it is essential that a caller leave his name, address and telephone number.

USE OF THE recorder system will allow the hot line to operate 24 hours a day and to accommodate evening and weekend calls.
Responses will be made either by the direct telephone contact or by letter, DNR officials say.

A THOUGHT TO REMEMBER

BY HAROLD REDISKE, DIRECTOR

At election time, and up to the very minute you cast your vote, the influence of other people has had some sort of effect on you. Remember that. It's important! And if you have ever thought the people in government exercise too much influence, remember another thing. Government is one thing and one thing only. PEOPLE! If and when we think people in government have too much influence, we have ourselves to blame. We, the voters, have far more influence than they. OUR votes influence THEM. The best way NOT to influence the people in government is simply to stay away from the polls. But, when you DO vote, whether it be for men or issues, you cast YOUR influence. Obviously, before you can influence people in government, you have to influence yourself to vote.
The attempted influence by others before election can be accepted or rejected by you. When you stand in front of the silent, secret voting booth or in front of the whirling voting machine, YOU are the one who is doing the influencing. Be an influential! VOTE! Cast YOUR influence!

Belleville architect gets national award

National honors have been awarded to a Belleville architect. He is Thurston R. Jahr of 45281 Harmony Lane.

The award presented to Jahr was in recognition of his firm's renovation and expansion plans for the Roosevelt High School in Wyandotte. Jahr operates the T.R. Jahr Associates, architects and engineers, at 15011 Michigan Ave., Dearborn.

The award certificate in the national "Operation Education Upgrade" program was given last Tuesday at the annual convention of the Association of School Business Officials held in Anaheim, Calif.

SPONSORS of the program are the American Institute of Architects, the Association of School Business Officials of the United States and Canada, the Council of Educational Facility Planners International and the School Product News magazine. T.R. Jahr Associates has specialized in school construction and remodeling work throughout southeast Michigan during its 25 years as a Dearborn based firm. George Craven, architect, also of Belleville is a principal member of the firm.

The panel of judges said the Jahr Associates' renovation approach at Roosevelt High School was keyed to curriculum, teaching methods and administrative efficiency toward improving the working and learning environment at the 50-year-old school.

By re-allocating space in the original building, built in 1923, and adding compatible additions, the finished product will be the equivalent of a completely new high school that will accommodate up to 2,000 students.

ALSO UNDER consideration for a similar award under the same program is the firm's work for the Wayne-Westland Community School District.

The jury has indicated that it also is interested in the additions and renovations to the Wayne Memorial High School and will send a representative to review this project.

STATE OF MICHIGAN)

SS
COUNTY OF WAYNE)

I, Patricia Cullin, Clerk of the Township of Van Buren do hereby certify that the foregoing is a correct copy of an Ordinance as passed by the Township of Van Buren at a regular meeting held on October 23, 1973.

Patricia Cullin, Clerk
Van Buren Township

Board of Education
Van Buren Public Schools
Belleville, Michigan

Gentlemen:

We have examined the financial statements of the several funds of the Van Buren Public Schools, Belleville, Michigan, for the year ended June 30, 1973. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

No verification was made for teachers' class room enrollment in comparison with school census records.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheets and statements of revenues and expenditures and fund balances present fairly the financial position of the General Fund, Debt Retirement Funds, Building and Site Funds, Cafeteria, Activity Funds and Title I Funds, of the Van Buren Public Schools at June 30, 1973, and the results of the transactions of such Funds for the year then ended, in conformity with the generally accepted principals of accounting.

VAN BUREN TOWNSHIP

REGULAR BOARD MEETING

October 23, 1973

The Meeting opened with the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag at 8:00 P.M. Sup. Gollwitzer called the meeting to order. Members present: Sup. Gollwitzer, Clerk Cullin, Treas. Hedman, Trustees: Blend, Domen, Kuchta, Eng. Levine, Att. Axe, Absent: Trustee Kureth. Also present were 25 citizens.

Motion Domen, support Kuchta, to accept the minutes of Oct. 9, 1973 as presented. Motion carried unanimously. Motion Kuchta, support Hedman, to accept the minutes of the Special Meeting of Oct. 11, 1973 as presented. Motion carried unanimously.

Sup. Gollwitzer explained the correspondence from DeVilbiss Company requesting that a street light be installed at I-94 service drive and Haggerty Road. Correspondence from Jan. 20, 1969 signed by Sup. Stoelton stated Detroit Edison promised to erect a light at soon as possible. At the present time the road is under construction and it is unknown if there will be a traffic light installed at this point. Blend stated it would be appropriate to tell them we will review the situation when the road is completed.

Motion Blend, support Domen to adopt the Resolution as required by the Board of Wayne County Commissioners to submit to the electors such additional millage as may be required to insure domestic tranquility, freedom from fear and safety of life, limb and property from illegal acts and that this resolution shall be communicated by the Twp. Clerk to the Board of Commissioners of Wayne County before Dec. 1, 1973. Motion carried unanimously. Motion Hedman, support Cullin, to submit annual dues to the Reciprocal Heating Council for the Community Active Member. Motion carried unanimously.

Motion Kuchta, support Domen, to direct the Clerk to write a letter to State Rep. Gary Owen and inquire what is he actively doing along the lines of supporting the Twp. of Van Buren's stand in reference to the Wayne County Sheriff's Law Enforcement Div. Motion carried unanimously.

Motion Hedman, support Kuchta, to note and file correspondence from State Sen. Wm. Faust stating acknowledgment of Van Buren's resolution on the Sheriff's Road Patrol; also on the Resolution from the Twp. of Huron in regard to the picture in the Belleville Enterprise regarding the sheriff patrol, as we just passed a similar resolution at our last Board meeting. Motion carried unanimously.

Motion Kuchta, support Blend, to accept the check in payment of a building permit for house to be constructed under the Van Buren Twp. school building Trades Program, with the idea that if something should happen where they could not recoup their original investment on the property, we will be more than willing to refund the permit fee. Ayes: Blend, Cullin, Hedman, Kuchta. Nays: Domen, Motion carried.

Clerk Cullin read a letter from PCHA and informed the Board that the money is being prudently spent. Also a new record of 216,301 patients were served this year and that the PCHA hospital rates for service remained among the lowest in the area, for quality health care. Clerk Cullin read a notice from the Wayne County Road Commission stating a certified copy of a resolution adopted by Road Commission Board denying the petition to vacate a certain portion of section of county roads in Wayne County, Michigan or Westaway Street.

Sup. Gollwitzer reported on the meeting with Mr. Grainger. Mr. Grainger did not understand our problem. The following corrections were made on the Building and Recreational Authority Resolutions: (1) Page 3 Sec. 5 "revenue" is deleted (2) Page 4 Sec. 2 shall now read: The terms of the Commissioners constituting the first Commission shall be for the First Commissioner two (2) years, the next two Commissioners four (4) years and the next two Commissioners six (6) years; thereafter succeeding Commissioners shall serve for six (6) year terms. Provided however, the initial terms of office shall commence upon acceptance of appointment and shall terminate on the 30th Day of November following the specified term, and terms of succeeding Commissioners shall commence on December 1st.

(3) Page 5 The word Mayor shall be changed to Supervisor. Motion Hedman, support Blend to adopt the revised version of the Building and Recreational Authority. Motion carried unanimously.

The following bids were received for the Water Dept. Van; Ed Carpenter Sales 3914.52; College Dodge, Inc. 3454.94; Spittler Demmer, Inc. 3512.48; Heininger Chev., Inc. 3609.46; Atchinson Ford 3520.95. Motion Domen, support Kuchta, to accept the low bid and refer to the Water Dept. to compare the bids. Motion carried unanimously. Police Chief Willet reported that at the Lake Meeting, State Rep. Gary Owen stated that the money has been allotted for the Traffic Light at Michigan Avenue and Denton Road. The deadline is October 30, 1973. No work has been started at this date.

The payment for mowing of cemetery for William Smith is also on the Voucher List and will be approved if the Voucher List is approved. The request for new lawn mowers will be taken up at the annual Cemetery meeting. Motion Blend, support Hedman, to rezoned Twp. Case 73-118 from R-1 B to RM at Sec. 23 and I-94 South Service Drive between Belleville and Haggerty Roads, as recommended by both Wayne County Planning Commission and Van Buren Twp. Planning Commission. Kuchta stated that Mr. Volk has a 17 point written consent agreement with the neighbors and should be an asset to the community. Motion carried unanimously.

Police Commissioner Blend received a signed statement from 23 citizens expressing their appreciation for the police enforcement of the Residential Area Speed restrictions on Denton Road. Kuchta remarked that this is indicative of the calibre of men we have on our police force.

Motion Blend, support Kuchta, to pay dues to the Wayne County Treas. Assn. for Treas. and Dep. Treas. Motion carried unanimously.

Motion Cullin, support Hedman, to table the letter to Detroit Edison requesting that Detroit Edison maintain a winter level of minus 5 rather than minus 3 feet to facilitate any lake bottom clean up that may be attempted until the Attorney gets a letter from the Wayne County Road Commission, or until he gives us a recommendation at the next Board Meeting.

Motion Kuchta, support Cullin, to accept the resignation of Phil Eller from the Water and Sewer Commission and send a Thank You letter for the very fine job he has done. Motion carried unanimously.

Joint Water Agreement with Sumpter Township is tabled due to lack of information at this time. Motion Blend, support Kuchta, to proceed with the letter to Edison Company if the Attorney gives us the approval before the next Board Meeting. Motion carried unanimously.

Motion Hedman, support Kuchta, to accept the reports from the Water Dept., Dog Warden, and Fire Dept. No. 1 as presented. Motion carried unanimously. Clerk Cullin announced that the Immunization Clinic will be held Sunday Oct. 28, 1973 from 10:00 A.M. until 3:00 P.M. at the Twp. Hall.

Motion Hedman, support Domen, to accept the Voucher Lists as submitted. Motion carried unanimously. Eng. Levine requested payment of Ackron Contracting Co. 2-4 advised that $19,000.00 will be held back. The pipes are in place and the clean-up is mostly all done. This is on the Voucher List from the Water Dept.

Motion Blend, support Kuchta, to make the payment as recommended by the Engineers. Motion carried unanimously.

Motion Hedman, support Kuchta, to adjourn at 9:10 P.M. Respectfully submitted, Pat Cullin, Clerk Van Buren Township Approved by: G.E. Gollwitzer

WE WANT TO SELL YOU EVERY CAR YOU'LL EVER OWN! We don't just want to sell you a car this year. We want to sell you every car you'll ever buy. And if that sounds greedy, it's also the only way to do business. Because it works better for you. And we figure you'll buy as many as fifteen or twenty cars in a lifetime. Which puts you in the category with some of our biggest fleet customers. The only difference is, you take delivery one at a time.

It's about time a car dealer delivered more than just a car.
